College of Business Administration
Distance Learning Starter Scholarship

The College of Business Administration Distance Learning Starter Scholarship is a competitive scholarship awarded each academic year to as many as 50 Graduate Students entering the MBA or MS in Project Management Programs.

The $1,000 scholarship will be awarded in two equal disbursements for selected students who are enrolled in distance learning coursework during their first and second semester of the program. The disbursement of the scholarship for the second semester is contingent upon the student maintaining good academic standing.

Students wishing to be considered for this scholarship opportunity should complete the applicable portions of this form with the appropriate information and submit by e-mail to busgrad@shsu.edu.
For additional information contact Rick Thaler at 936-294-1239.
