

China Study Abroad Beijing, China
China University of Mining and Technology (CUMTB)
\(http://eng.cumt.edu.cn/\)
May 15 – June 10, 2017

Program organized by Dr. Fidel Gonzalez. Space is limited to 13 students. Applications are taken on a first-come, first-served basis. A waiting list will be created once the 13 spots are filled. Please contact Dr. Gonzalez at fxg001@shsu.edu or office 237-J in the Smith-Hutson Business building. You can also contact Dana Van De Walker in the Study Abroad Office at djv013@shsu.edu

Courses Offered - ECON 4360 & ECON 4085

These courses will cover: 1) the evolution of the business/economic system in China and 2) the environmental challenges as a result of China's economic development. Please see the Department Chair of Economics and International Business for substituting these courses for other economics courses required by your degree plan.

Costs

1. Program fee of $500 (includes housing accommodation, field trips, special activities, and guest lectures)
2. Airfare (approx. $1,000 for a Houston/Beijing round-trip flight)
3. Food and any other personal expenses
4. The total estimated cost (including items 1 to 3 above) is about $2,400 + Tuition for 6 hours

Scholarships - There are two scholarships available:

1. The College of Business Administration (COBA) offers a scholarship of about $800 for this program. To qualify, you only need to be a business major with a SHSU GPA of at least 3.0. Application sheet is available from Dr. Gonzalez.
2. The Office of International Programs (OIP) offers scholarships to students with a GPA of at least 3.0. Last year the average OIP scholarship was $650. Deadline to apply is February 1st. See: http://www.shsu.edu/~int_www/abroad/scholarships.html

Accommodation: the accommodation is conveniently on the CUMTB campus and it has no additional costs (it is provided free of charge by CUMTB).

Important Dates and How to Apply

1. To apply contact Dr. Gonzalez, fill out and turn in the application to the International Office. You can access the application in this link: <https://goo.gl/DwUY9J>
2. $300 deposit paid within one week of being accepted into program.
3. February 10th – $100 of program fee due.
4. March 10th – the remaining $100 of program fee due.

