

Sam Houston
STATE UNIVERSITY

International Business in Germany

RWTH Aachen University (www.wiwi.rwth-aachen.de/)

28 June – 21 July, 2018

The program is organized by Dr. Christian Raschke. Space is limited to 12 students. Please contact Dr. Raschke at raschke@shsu.edu or come to office 237-B in the Smith-Hutson Business building.

Courses Offered - ECON 4360 & ECON 4085

In these courses we will develop an understanding of current German business practices and culture, and cover the principle of Social Market Economics and its role in the economic development of Germany since World War II.

Financial information:

1. Program fee of $1,900 (includes housing accommodation, most breakfast and lunch meals, field trips, special activities, guest lectures)
2. Airfare (~$1,000-$1,700 for a round-trip flight)
3. Tuition for 6 hours.
4. Food and any other personal expenses

Scholarships:

1. The College of Business Administration (COBA) will give a scholarship of at least $1,000 for business majors with a GPA of 3.0 or higher.
2. The Office of International Programs (OIP) offers scholarships to students with a GPA of at least 3.0. Last year the average OIP scholarship was $800. Deadline to apply is February 1st. See: http://www.shsu.edu/~int_www/abroad/scholarships.html

Accommodations:

We will stay at a hostel that is conveniently located next to the main train station in Aachen. These accommodations are included in the program fee. The hostel includes breakfast.

Activities:

In addition to classroom work, we will have several trips every week to visit companies and cultural sites in the area, as well as events to connect with local students.

Aachen is very well connected to other major European cities. Last year, we visited the EU facilities in Brussels, took a 2-day trip to Paris, and students visited Amsterdam on a free day.

To apply, contact Dr. Raschke! (Email: Raschke@shsu.edu)

