Fees for Professional Licenses

Fees may be paid from Sam Houston State University Funds for employees to obtain or renew professional licenses if the following conditions exist:

1. The license is directly and substantially related to the employee's position and duties.
2. The University would receive adequate return on the payment.
3. The President or his designee has approved the payment. The fee may be paid directly to the licensing agency or the University may reimburse the employee. Vouchers made payable to the licensing agency must have the billing invoice attached. Vouchers that reimburse the employee must have a copy of the receipt or canceled check attached. Fees may be paid from state, local or gift funds.
