UNIVERSALITY OF GLOBAL EDUCATION CONFERENCE

Education for Culturally Sustaining Practices

FEBRUARY 28 - MARCH 1, 2019 // SAM HOUSTON STATE UNIVERSITY
LOWMAN STUDENT CENTER // HUNTSVILLE, TEXAS

About the Conference

The Universality of Global Education Conference (UGEeC), now in its 6th year, brings together interdisciplinary scholars and students from around the world to discuss issues, theories, research, practices, and teaching in diverse international educational environments.

SESSION TYPES

Research Paper: Traditional 20 minute paper presenting original research, assessment, philosophical inquiry, or innovative educational practice.

Panel: 3 or more individuals discussing a focused topic.

Poster: Posters are available throughout the conference.

Multimedia/Artistic Presentation: Film, Audiovisual, or artistic production (maximum 20 minutes).

We invite proposals for papers, panels, posters, multimedia, and artistic presentations related to our theme, Education for Culturally Sustaining Practices, or broadly linked to international education from disciplinary and interdisciplinary perspectives. Sessions at UGEeC cover a full range of topics from across the educational pipeline: international education, bilingual education, curriculum, pedagogy, policy, agriculture, multiculturalism, multilingualism, translinguaging, literature, elementary-secondary- postsecondary schooling, leadership, teaching, philosophy, gender issues, research, assessment, and evaluation.

Educators, graduate students, teachers, and those working in government or non-governmental agencies are all encouraged to submit proposals.
