INVITATION FOR BID ON THE HOUSTONIAN

INVITATION FOR BID ON THE PRESSWORK FOR THE HOUSTONIAN, ON OR ABOUT AUGUST 20, 2015 THROUGH AUGUST 19, 2016.

The first edition of the newspaper for the Fall Semester is scheduled to be printed on August 25, 2015 for delivery on August 26, 2015 and is included in this contract.

SPECIFICATIONS: Customer will transmit pages electronically to publisher. Bidder will be responsible for printing the newspaper with provisions and stipulations furnished herewith and according to the publication schedule provided.

The Houstonian is a 5-column broadsheet format newspaper that will be delivered/distributed on Wednesday mornings during fall and spring semesters.

Ten-month schedule of the publication averages 29 issues per year.

Dimensions of The Houstonian are: 5-columns of 12 points between columns. Columns are 21.5 inches deep, including folio. Page size is approximately 11 inches by 22.75 inches (two tabloid pages equaling one broadsheet page). Further, The Houstonian requests that bidder submit pricing for using standard 30 weight paper. The bidder must have press capability and labor to produce The Houstonian issues.

Typical issues are four, six or eight pages, but based upon advertising demand and special occasions, may require larger papers. The press run for the fall and spring semesters will be no less than 2,000. Back-to-school issues may run as large as 24 pages.

The Houstonian will provide finished copy via FTP Site and Fetch software by 9:30 p.m. on Tuesday nights during fall and spring semesters. Each issue must be available for distribution on campus no later than 6 a.m. on distribution days. Delivery of printed papers to campus will be provided by the contractor.

Should there be persistent delays in the press run without acceptable cause, and if the delays are damaging to The Houstonian, The Houstonian will notify the bidder of the delays and request that the deadlines be met. If the delays are not eliminated, The Houstonian may then terminate the contract and agreements at its discretion. Delays caused by The Houstonian will not reflect upon the bidder. If delays by The Houstonian are shown to be detrimental to the orderly schedule and operations of the bidder’s firm, it may seek payment on an actual cost basis.

If it becomes necessary to revise any part of this IFB, notice of the revision will be given in the form of an addendum and will be posted on the Texas Electronic State Business Daily http://esbd.cpa.state.tx.us and the Walker County Alliance web page www.shsu.edu/wca. All addenda shall become a part of this IFB and shall become part of the contract. All questions will be reviewed, consolidated where possible, and answered in one Addendum or as Responses to Questions for clarification to the bid. Addenda and/or Responses to Questions are usually posted within 2 business days unless the questions involve legal issues or complex subjects. It is the responsibility of the bidder to monitor the website for addendums or other written responses.

INVITATION FOR BID ON THE HOUSTONIAN

Contract period is from on or about August 20, 2015 through August 19, 2016, SHSU reserves the right to extend this contract, monthly, for up to an additional 4 months if necessary. Prices are to include any and all fees, charges, and costs.

Special provisions:
Section 1: Bids must be submitted on this form. Bids submitted on any other form will be rejected. Conditional bids will not be considered.

Section 2: The terms, conditions, mechanical, material, and service requirements, and the prices set forth in this bid shall constitute an integral part of the contract. Any contract thus made does not guarantee that a newspaper will be published or any specific sum spent. If the newspaper is not published and no materials ordered or mechanical work performed, there shall be no financial obligation to the Bidder. If the newspaper should be abandoned during or after printing by the Bidder, the Bidder shall be paid for the material ordered and actual work done up to that date.

Section 3: All billing shall be in exact accordance with the prices quoted in this bid. For any additional expense or additional work not covered in this bid, the Bidder will supply a written quotation upon request, and no work will be done until the Bidder has received written authorization from SHSU Procurement and The Houstonian for such work.

Section 4: The Bidder may be asked to submit 5 consecutive issues of their own newspaper, if they are a publisher, printed on their own press prior to the award. If the Bidder is not a publisher of a newspaper of their own, they may be asked to furnish five consecutive issues of one or two newspapers printed on their press prior to award. In any event, they should furnish the contact information of persons in authority in the two newspapers printed by the Bidder so that these persons may be contacted as references.

Section 5: No part of the work contracted for, will be purchased from or transferred to another firm except for emergencies and long-term breakdown of equipment, and in all cases only with the approval of SHSU Procurement and The Houstonian, who must consent to and authorize a transfer of work, issue by issue, in writing. The Bidder should communicate to the customer a plan to meet emergencies which may reasonably be anticipated, as when the Bidder’s equipment is temporarily inoperable, or in other circumstances, any of which may delay delivery of the newspaper, hence diminishing the appeal of the newspaper or the value of paid advertising. Further, should there be cause to doubt the competence or capability of any Bidder to produce the quality of work specified and within the schedule specified, such Bidder’s bid may be rejected.

Section 6: For very rare occasions when the importance of a late-breaking news occurrence warrants it, the Bidder should have the capability to re-plate up to an hour before the agreed-upon time for start-up of the press. Only the customer’s full-time authorized representative may make such a request in writing. The customer can give full assurance that the request will not be made frivolously. Its inclusion simply formalizes the affirmative attitude of the two parties toward what is a long-time commitment in journalism to attempt to inform fully and quickly under difficult circumstances. Further, the Bidder should accept approved calls or requests in person from the customer to advise on and help expedite occasional special graphic effects not otherwise stipulated.
INVITATION FOR BID ON THE HOUSTONIAN

Section 7: The finished presswork must be first quality in all respects and the quality must be consistent. The finished newspaper must not show evidence of dirty printing plates, ink rollers, and in-negative processing. The Bidder, furthermore, must maintain a form of quality control, especially with regard to ink distribution, excellent reproduction of dot structure in halftones and which also produces acceptable contrast and middle tones. The quality of color reproduction should be consistently high by industry standards.

Section 8: In the event that the contractor is non-compliant with any portion of the contract, Sam Houston State University (SHSU) will give contractor 30 days written notice to comply. If compliance is unsatisfactory after 30 days, SHSU has the right to terminate the contract.

Section 9: SHSU reserves the right and has the option to re-award this contract to the next low bidder that meets or exceeds the requirements of the Invitation For Bid (IFB), if the initial awarded bidder cannot meet the requirements of the IFB, throughout the term of the contract.
