Course Description: This course is designed to certify individuals as having completed Instructional Leadership Development (ILD). The professional development opportunities that ILD provides for new administrators have the potential to significantly impact the ability to continue the state’s progress toward increased student achievement. Emphasis is also placed on the improvement of instruction through research findings, the demonstration of instructional improvement in various curricular offerings, and the development of leaders who can facilitate the process of educational change. The curricula for this course includes the knowledge of the literature, ongoing student engagement in research and appropriate professional practice and training experiences in educational leadership.

Required Text: There is no traditional textbook for this course. The Texas Education Agency’s approved ILD Curriculum/Workbook serves as the required text and includes a variety of materials and resources. The workbook is copyrighted and, unless otherwise specified, materials may not be duplicated. Each participant is required to pay $40.00 for the cost of this workbook. Please make checks payable to SHSU.

Course Objectives: Participants will be able to:
- Recognize that all decisions should lead to quality learning for all students to support student achievement and a vision that assures learning for all students.
- Recognize the importance of utilizing systems thinking to make decisions.
- Understand the role of an instructional leader in the system.
- Apply a framework for continuous improvement to school organizations and individuals in order to promote student success.
- Identify and utilize four critical elements in understanding and making decisions about Teaching and Learning.
Course Requirements and Evaluation Criteria: Participants are expected to participate online each class session. Students must participate in each required online activity in order to receive full credit for the course and receive the state certification for this course. Effective use of time on task is one of the primary goals.

Each participant is expected to participate fully in all discussions and activities. The class is conducted in an informal manner—we are colleagues learning together. You have much to offer to this experience, and we learn from each other. You will be assigned to different groups for many of the activities.

Expectations

✓ Participation is both expected and required in this class. Online attendance for all class sessions is expected.
✓ All work is due on the date specified. Late work will not be accepted or awarded credit.

Internship Activities
A reflection and an artifact are required for each activity. Place these under Standard I in your internship notebook.

1. Examine a variety of types of data from all components of a school system to determine needs of the campus for each of the following areas: Curriculum Instruction & Assessment, Professional Development, Supervision and Communication and Community Relations/Organizational Management. (Reflection Journal/Data Sources sheets).
2. Analyze goals, objectives, activities, resources and assessment strategies for improving student performance based on the needs of the students.
3. Conduct a teacher observation (video) using the development supervision process, including: (a) Pre-Observation, (b) observe, collect data, (c) analyze data, (d) conduct feedback and (e) develop growth plans.

Book Study
Students will be placed into groups of 3 or 4 students who will study a book chosen from the list below or any other book approved by the professor. Each book will be summarized and presented to the class.

Books:
1. In Search of Excellence by Thomas Peters and Robert Watermann
2. The Fifth Discipline by Peter Senge
3. Trust Matters: Leadership for Successful Schools by Megan Tschannen-Moran
4. The 7 Habits of Highly Effective People by Stephen Covey
5. Gung Ho! by Ken Blanchard and Sheldon Bowles
6. Who Moved My Cheese by Spencer Johnson

Grades
Participation: 100 points 300-270=A
Book Study: 100 points 269-240=B
Internship Activities 100 points 239-210=C
Total 300 points <210=F
ACADEMIC DISHONESTY—All students are expected to engage in all academic pursuits in a manner that is above reproach. Students are expected to maintain honesty and integrity in the academic experiences both in and out of the classroom. Any student found guilty of dishonesty in any phase of online academic work will be subject to disciplinary action. The University and its official representatives may initiate disciplinary proceedings against a student accused of any form of academic dishonesty including, but not limited to, cheating on an examination or other online academic work which is to be submitted, plagiarism, and the abuse of resource materials. For a complete listing of the university policy, see: http://www.shsu.edu/administrative/faculty/sectionb.html#dishonesty

STUDENT ABSENCES ON RELIGIOUS HOLY DAYS POLICY—Section 51.911(b) of the Texas Education Code requires that an institution of higher education excuse a student from attending classes or other required activities, including examinations, for the observance of a religious holy day, including travel for that purpose. Section 51.911 (a) (2) defines a religious holy day as: “a holy day observed by a religion whose places of worship are exempt from property taxation under Section 11.20….” A student whose absence is excused under this subsection may not be penalized for that absence and shall be allowed to take an examination or complete an assignment from which the student is excused within a reasonable time after the absence.

University policy 861001 provides the procedures to be followed by the student and instructor. A student desiring to absent himself/herself from a scheduled class in order to observe (a) religious holy day(s) shall present to each instructor involved a written statement concerning the religious holy day(s). The instructor will complete a form notifying the student of a reasonable timeframe in which the missed assignments and/or examinations are to be completed. For a complete listing of the university policy, see: http://www.shsu.edu/~vaf_www/aps/documents/861001.pdf

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES POLICY—It is the policy of Sam Houston State University that individuals otherwise qualified shall not be excluded, solely by reason of their disability, from participation in any academic program of the University. Further, they shall not be denied the benefits of these programs nor shall they be subjected to discrimination. Students with disabilities that might affect their academic performance are expected to visit with the Office of Services for Students with Disabilities located in the Counseling Center. They should then make arrangements with their individual instructors so that appropriate strategies can be considered and helpful procedures can be developed to ensure that participation and achievement opportunities are not impaired.

SHSU adheres to all applicable federal, state, and local laws, regulations, and guidelines with respect to providing reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities. If you have a disability that may affect adversely your work in this class, then I encourage you to register with the SHSU Counseling Center and to talk with me about how I can best help you. All disclosures of disabilities will be kept strictly confidential. NOTE: No accommodation can be made until you register with the Counseling Center. For a complete listing of the University policy, see: http://www.shsu.edu/~vaf_www/aps/811006.html

VISITORS IN THE ONLINE CLASSROOM Only registered students may attend online classes. Students wishing to audit a class must apply to do so through the Registrar’s Office.
