This course (cid 5261, 3 credit hours) will deepen your knowledge of the history and development of the English language. We will start from Proto-Indo-European, moving through the millennia and centuries to look at the changes that took place in Common Germanic, Old English (Anglo-Saxon), Middle English, Early Modern English, and English today.

The study of the history of language is the study of change. We will investigate the changes which have altered the typology of our language from a more synthetic, inflecting language into a more analytic language, where word order is dominant and prepositions and particles rule. The focus of this class will be on linguistics: you will learn about language-internal changes in the areas of phonology, morphology and syntax, semantics, and lexicon; however, since linguistic change does not happen in a social and historical vacuum, external forces will be discussed as well insofar as they are pertinent to language-internal changes. Old English, Middle English, and Early Modern English texts will be studied as samples of language rather than as literary artifacts.

The class consists of readings (4 required textbooks) and a number of articles. There is a midterm and a comprehensive final examination. You will write a term paper and a book review on topics of your choice approved by the instructor. You will also lead the discussion of one article from the reading list.

Even though no background in linguistics is officially required, it is advisable that you be familiar with basic linguistic terminology. For reference, consult a good introductory text to linguistics, for instance:

A prior familiarity with the International Phonetic Alphabet (IPA) will help; however, that will be covered during the first weeks of class.

Incidents of non-attendance and/or non-preparation will lower your ‘participation grade.’

1 Unfortunately, only local telephone calls can be returned since SHSU no longer budgets long distance phone privileges for English professors.
Required texts:

♦ A separate reading packet of articles.

December 13?  Final examination
\textit{Grades will be filed by Monday, Dec. 17, 9:00 a.m.}
ACADEMIC DISHONESTY:
All students are expected to engage in all academic pursuits in a manner that is above reproach. Students are expected to maintain honesty and integrity in the academic experiences both in and out of the classroom. Any student found guilty of dishonesty in any phase of academic work will be subject to disciplinary action. The University and its official representatives may initiate disciplinary proceedings against a student accused of any form of academic dishonesty including but not limited to, cheating on an examination or other academic work which is to be submitted, plagiarism, collusion and the abuse of resource materials. For a complete listing of the university policy, see: http://www.shsu.edu/administrative/faculty/sectionb.html#dishonesty

STUDENT ABSENCES ON RELIGIOUS HOLY DAYS POLICY:
Section 51.911(b) of the Texas Education Code requires that an institution of higher education excuse a student from attending classes or other required activities, including examinations, for the observance of a religious holy day, including travel for that purpose. Section 51.911 (a) (2) defines a religious holy day as: “a holy day observed by a religion whose places of worship are exempt from property taxation under Section 11.20...” A student whose absence is excused under this subsection may not be penalized for that absence and shall be allowed to take an examination or complete an assignment from which the student is excused within a reasonable time after the absence.

University policy 861001 provides the procedures to be followed by the student and instructor. A student desiring to absent himself/herself from a scheduled class in order to observe (a) religious holy day(s) shall present to each instructor involved a written statement concerning the religious holy day(s). The instructor will complete a form notifying the student of a reasonable timeframe in which the missed assignments and/or examinations are to be completed. For a complete listing of the university policy, see: http://www.shsu.edu/~vaf_www/aps/documents/861001.pdf

VISITORS IN THE CLASSROOM:
Only registered students may attend class. Exceptions can be made on a case-by-case basis by the professor. In all cases, visitors must not present a disruption to the class by their attendance. Students wishing to audit a class must apply to do so through the Registrar’s Office.

INSTRUCTOR EVALUATIONS:
Students will be asked to complete a course/instructor evaluation form toward the end of the semester.

STUDENT CONDUCT AND DISCIPLINE:
1 Acquaintance with Policies, Rules, and Regulations. Each student is expected to be fully acquainted and comply with all published policies, rules, and regulations of the component, copies of which shall be available to each student for review online and/or at various locations on each campus. Students are also expected to comply with all federal and state laws.

2 Student Misconduct. Each student is expected to act in a manner consistent with the component’s functions as an educational institution, including off campus conduct that is likely to have an adverse effect on the component or on the educational process. No person or group of persons acting in concert may willfully violate the following rules. Specific examples of misconduct for which students may be subject to disciplinary action include, but are not limited to, the following:
   (1) Commission of an act that would constitute an offense under appropriate federal, state, or municipal law.
   (2) Violation of any Regents’ rule, regulation, or order or component policy, rule, or regulation, including any rule or regulation governing residential living in component-owned facilities or breach of a residential living contract.
   (3) Failure to comply with the direction of a component official acting in the performance of his or her duties; or, failure to heed an official summons to the office of a component official within the designated time.
   (4) Giving false testimony or other evidence at a campus disciplinary or other administrative proceeding.
   (5) Failure to meet financial obligations to the component.
Unauthorized use or possession of ammunition, firearms, illegal knives (knives with blades longer than five and one-half inches, hand instruments designed to cut or stab another by being thrown, stilettos, poniards, Bowie knives, swords, and/or spears), or other illegal weapons on component property.

Conduct that significantly endangers the health or safety of other persons, including members of the component community or visitors on the campus, including, by way of example, unauthorized throwing of any objects in or from component facilities.

Stealing, destroying, defacing, damaging, or misusing component property (including misuse of fire or life-safety equipment or property) or property belonging to another.

Engaging in hazing or voluntarily submitting to hazing, including an initiation by an organization that involves any dangerous, harmful, or degrading act to a student. Violation of this policy renders the student(s) involved and the organization subject to discipline.

Possessing and/or using, without authorization according to the component policy, intoxicating beverages in a classroom building, laboratory, auditorium, library building, faculty or administrative office, residence hall or apartment, intercollegiate and intramural athletic facility, or any other public campus area, or being intoxicated in any public area of the campus.

Gambling in any form on component property.

Illegal possession, use, sale, or distribution of any quantity, whether usable or not, of any drug, narcotic, or controlled substance.

Advocating or recommending, either orally or in writing, the conscious and deliberate violation of any federal, state, or local law. Advocacy means addressing an individual or group for imminent action and steering it to such action as opposed to the abstract espousal of the moral propriety of a course of action.

Forgery, alteration, or misuse of component documents, forms, records, or identification cards; or issuance of a check to the component or its contractors without sufficient funds.

All students must carry and when requested by a University Official furnish their Bearkat One ID card. Any falsification, misrepresentation or other misuse of the Bearkat OneCard is prohibited.

Unauthorized possession, ignition, or detonation, on component property, of any explosive device, fireworks, liquid, or object that is flammable or capable of causing damage by fire or explosion to persons or property.

Unauthorized entry into or use of component buildings, facilities, equipment, or resources, or possession or use of component keys for unauthorized purposes.

Failure to maintain a current official mailing address in the Registrar’s office and/or giving a false or fictitious address to a component office or official.

Making false alarms or reports where the person knowingly initiates, communicates, or circulates a report of a present, past, or future bombing, fire, offense, or other emergency that is known as false or baseless and that would ordinarily cause action by an official or volunteer agency organized to deal with emergencies; place a person in fear of imminent serious bodily injury; or prevent or interrupt the occupation of a building, room, aircraft, automobile, or other mode of conveyance.

Harassment where the individual intentionally threatens, in person, by telephone, electronically, in writing, or by other means, to take unlawful action against any person and by this action intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly annoys or alarms the recipient or intends to annoy or alarm the recipient.

Academic dishonesty (see subparagraph 5.3).

Campus disruptive activities (see subparagraph 5.4) or disorderly conduct on component-owned or controlled property or at a component-sponsored or supervised function that inhibit or interfere with the educational responsibility of the component community or the component’s social-educational activities shall include but not be limited to: using abusive, indecent, profane or vulgar language; making offensive gestures or displays that tend to incite a breach of the peace; perpetrating fights, assaults, acts of sexual violence, abuse, or threats; or evincing some obviously offensive manner or committing an act that causes a person to feel threatened. Such prohibition includes disorderly classroom conduct that obstructs, interferes with, inhibits and/or disrupts teaching and/or related classroom activities.

Using authority granted by state law, System rule, or component policy to deprive any person of his or her civil rights.

Violation of component policy relating to electronic network facilities such as local area networks and the Internet.

Any attempt to commit these prohibited acts.

Use of cellular phones during class is strongly discouraged. Should your phone ring, you are obliged to answer it and carry out a conversation. The conversation will be subjected to an immediate and detailed linguistic analysis by the entire class community, with special focus on sociolinguistic variation.
