INDEPENDENT FIELD TRIP PROJECT

Each student must conduct an independent field trip to a lodging property, a food & beverage facility, or a club. Alternate hospitality related facilities may be substituted with the prior approval of the instructor. Within these guidelines, the choice for the independent field trip will be left option of the student. It is the student’s responsibility to choose a destination, make the necessary arrangements for the trip, conduct the trip, and report his/her findings by answering the questions below.

Please keep in mind when you are making the arrangements for your field trip that these industry professionals are busy people who take time from their schedule to meet with you. When contacting them, please be sensitive to their peak business hours; only call during slower periods such as the afternoon!!

Field Trip Report Requirements:
All reports must be word-processed (font: Times New Roman, font size 12),
Field Trip Reports are due Tuesday, November 20th, 2007 at beginning of class.  No Exceptions!!  Late papers will incur a 20% reduction for every day late afterwards.  No Exceptions!!

Answer the following questions in your report:

1. Date of the trip?
2. Site visited?
3. Name and position of person conducting the tour?
4. What did you observe at the site that differed from, or supported, information discussed in class?
5. What level of customer service did they provide?
6. Was the site clean and safe?
7. What aspects of the field trip did you enjoy or dislike?  Find out most or least interesting? Why?
8. How would you compare this site to a place you have worked or visited before?
9. What did you learn from this trip? Would you recommend that future classes take this field trip? Why? Why Not?

INDIVIDUAL RESEARCH PAPER

Each student will choose a hospitality-related topic or research on a hospitality company by conducting an electronic publication search about recent news and journal articles related to that topic.  After printing and reading two researched articles pertaining to the chosen topic, the student will briefly summarize both articles and state the implications to the industry in the final paragraph.

Papers will be formatted as followed (Use current APA style):

One article must be from the Internet, and the second article must be from a database research search in the University Library.  (Articles must have been written within the last 24 months.)  This project will be due on Tuesday, October 16th, 2007 at beginning of class!!  NO Exceptions!!
The paper must be word-processed (font: Times New Roman, font size 12), double-spaced, and utilize correct grammar, punctuation, and spelling. The paper should be minimum from 3 to 5 pages (one sided only!!) Please strictly adhere to the page limitation and have your topic on the top of the paper. No cover sheet is necessary!! The 2 articles and the printed research documentation must be attached to the back of the paper!! No Exceptions!!!

Paper Format Criteria for Grading for both papers
