COURSE OVERVIEW:
The course, Theory and Research in Psychotherapy I, is designed to provide the graduate student with a comparative analysis of various schools, systems, and techniques of psychotherapy. An overview of research, to date, related to the historical progression and social mores that were in effect and influenced theorists and practitioners is also provided. Finally, the role of therapist, client, and setting are examined along with ethical principles.

ATTENDANCE POLICY:

Regular and punctual attendance is expected and will be documented. SHSU policy is that no student will be penalized for three or fewer hours of absences. However, a student may be penalized for more than three hours of absences. My policy: Three hours of absence are free and clear. Plan this time carefully. However, any time beyond six hours will result in failure of the course. No exam or assignment may be made up unless PRIOR arrangements have been made with the instructor. If emergencies occur during scheduled exam times, the student MUST contact the instructor within 24 hours in order to qualify for a make-up. No make-up tests will be administered during class time. IT IS THE STUDENT'S RESPONSIBILITY TO CONTACT THE INSTRUCTOR REGARDING ANY MAKE-UP WORK.
STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES
It is the policy of Sam Houston State University that no individuals otherwise qualified shall, solely by reason of their disability, be excluded from the participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any academic program or activity. Students with a disability which affects their academic performance are expected to arrange a conference with the instructor as soon as possible. This is so that appropriate strategies can be considered to ensure participation and achievement opportunities are not impaired since there will be no retroactive accommodation. Furthermore, accommodations will be made only to those people who have documented the disability with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) Office in the Counseling Center. The number there is 294-1720.

TIME REQUIREMENT
For each graduate hour attempted, at least three hours outside class is expected. This 3-credit-hour course will meet 3 hours each week. That leaves 9 hours outside of class in which to read, meet with volunteer clients, attend your volunteer site, attend supervision, and complete assignments. A practicum frequently requires more hours per week. It is expected that if you enrolled in this graduate course, you can meet the time requirements.

STUDENT ABSENCES ON RELIGIOUS HOLY DAYS POLICY
Section 51.911(b) of the Texas Education Code requires that an institution of higher education excuse a student from attending classes or other required activities, including examinations, for the observance of a religious holy day, including travel for that purpose. Section 51.911(a)(2) defines religious holy days as: "a holy day observed by a religion whose places of worship are exempt from property taxation under Section 11.20, Tax Code."

A student whose absence is excused under this subsection may not be penalized for that absence and shall be allowed to take an examination or complete an assignment from which the student is excused within a reasonable time after the absence.

University policy 861001 provides the procedures to be followed by the student and instructor. A student desiring to absent himself/herself from a scheduled class in order to observe (a) religious holy day(s) shall present to each instructor involved a written statement concerning the religious holy day(s). The instructor will notify the student of a reasonable timeframe in which the missed assignments and/or examinations are to be completed.

PROFESSIONALISM
Attendance, punctuality, adherence to ethical standards, the quality of your interactions with colleagues and professors, and the quality of your timeliness in completing assignments all determine your professionalism, which in turn signals your readiness to advance in your program.
ACADEMIC HONESTY
The Graduate Faculty of Sam Houston State University expects students to conduct their academic work with integrity and honesty. Acts of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated and can result in the failure of a course and dismissal from the University. Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating on a test, plagiarism, collusion (the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing work offered for credit), the abuse of resource materials, and misrepresentation of credentials or accomplishments as a member of the college.

The University’s policy on academic honesty and appeal procedures can be found in the manual entitled Student Guidelines, distributed by Division of Student Services. (Reference Section 5.3 of the SHSU Student Guidelines)

CLASSROOM VISITORS
Only registered students may attend class. Exceptions can be made on a case-by-case basis by the professor. In all cases, visitors must not present a disruption to the class by their attendance. Students wishing to audit a class must apply to do so through the Registrar’s Office.

CLASSROOM RULES OF CONDUCT
Any disorderly classroom conduct that obstructs, interferes with, inhibits and/or disrupts teaching and/or related classroom activities is prohibited. Persons in the classroom engaging in such conduct will be asked to leave. Failure to the leave the classroom will result in University Police being requested to come to the classroom to assist with the removal of the person.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS
Students will be required write two papers: (1) Personal Theory of Psychotherapy; and (2) Independent Research Proposal. Additionally, there will three exams. As said previously, attendance is required; additionally, participation in class discussions is expected.

OUTSIDE RESEARCH
An independent research proposal will be required that includes a review of the literature and appropriate hypotheses and methodology.

CLASS PARTICIPATION
Class participation in class discussions and activities is expected as an avenue to meet the course objectives.

EXAMS
There will be three exams comprised of multiple choice, short answer, and essay items.
COURSE EVALUATION
Students will have the opportunity to evaluate the course and the instructor toward the end of the semester.
