Course Description: the following is from the SHSU University Catalog:
A survey of national public administration with emphasis on the political processes within the surrounding administrative agencies. Topics include development of the administrative function, policy formulation and budgeting, the relations of administrators to Congress, interest groups, courts and the public. State and local topics may be included.
Prerequisite: POL 261. Credit Hours: 3.

Welcome to POL 266! This course is designed for students to learn about Public Administration, a sub-discipline in Political Science. Basically, public administration is about implementing public policies, usually by personnel in government or non-profit organizations, though sometimes by personnel working in business organizations administering government contracts. Since public administration has a large job market, we will approach this course as if you plan to work for a government or non-profit agency.

Method of Instruction: this course is primarily lecture and discussion.

Course Goals:
1. US Public Policy Making Process: conceptualize the role of public agencies in the US public policy making process within US social and governmental contexts;
2. Public Administration: identify and understand elements necessary for public organizations to successfully implement public policies; and

Course Objectives:
Knowledge:

Required Textbooks:

I will also assign other reading material throughout the semester. These will be linked on the course website in Blackboard or handed out in class.

Attendance Policy: Class attendance is mandatory. If you are not be able to attend class on a regular basis, you must drop the course and re-take it in a future semester.
- Three (3) unexcused absences are allowed without penalty. NOTE: leaving class early counts as an absence.
• You must submit documentation to me to have an absence excused (e.g. doctor’s notice, etc.).
• If you have more than three unexcused absences during the semester, 05% points will be deducted from your final grade.

Assignments:

Readings: These are indicated on the class schedule. You must plan ahead and schedule your reading time appropriately.

Exams. Four (4) quizzes are scheduled for this class, and the top three (3) scores will count toward your final grade (i.e. the lowest score will be dropped). Students must bring a Scantron to class on the day of each quiz.

NOTE: the dates for the quizzes and the final exam are set at the times specified in order for you to gain the maximum learning benefit. No make-up exams are allowed.

Papers. Two (2) papers are required for this class. Instructions will be provided later.

NOTE: failure to properly document a class paper will result in a significant reduction in the assigned grade. See Academic Honesty, below.

Late Papers: if you are unable to complete the policy report at the specified time, you must contact me in advance and explain your reason. With my approval, the due date for the policy memo can be rescheduled, but no more than two days from the scheduled due date. Papers are subject to being assigned a lower grade if turned in late.

No extra credit assignments are scheduled.

Grading Plan - the following coursework is required to complete this course:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Required Assignments</th>
<th>Portion of Final Grade</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Three (3) Quizzes @15% each:</td>
<td>45%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Agency Paper:</td>
<td>35%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>KSA Paper:</td>
<td>20%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
