Course Requirements/Graded Assignments:

FORMAT FOR COURSE DOCUMENTS: All assignments outside of class must be computer-generated, double-spaced, use a 10-12 point Arial or Times New Roman font, and proofread to be error free. Major WRITTEN assignments (marked with ) such as the research paper, cultural interview, and others are expected to have an appropriately titled cover page. COVER PAGE will include: title of document; student’s name; prepared for: (professor’s name); course name, number and section; date paper was prepared; and any other important information.

1. Diversity Study: Develop a deeper understanding of a local community in terms of resources available that support as well as hinder the goals and objectives of multicultural education. Follow guidelines provided in class. You will write a 4 page paper and present your findings to the class. Presentation should be a summary of your written paper and no more than 5-6 minutes per person. Points will be taken off for “reading” your presentation to the class. Paper (100 points). Presentation (50 points). Attach Report Rubric to the FRONT of your paper and present the Presentation Rubrics with your name and name of your geographic area at the time of presentation. (Total of 150 points)

2. Me-Bags: Fill a bag with 5 items that tell about your culture and are important to whom you are. This will be shared with the whole class. Pick items you are willing to share with the whole class. Fill out the brief paper describing the items you picked for your Me-Bag contents and their importance to your cultural development. This presentation should be no more that 5 minutes long. ( 50 points))

3. Cultural Interview: Interview someone from a different cultural or ethnic group. Interview will begin with section describing (giving a background personal profile of) the interviewee and why this person is considered someone from a different culture than you as the interviewer. The interview will have a conclusion explaining what you learned from the interview. Sample interview questions are included in the guidelines for the Cultural Interview. Format your questions and answers like you have seen interviews written in magazines, newspapers or other publications. On a separate sheet of paper, write a summary of your interview that you will present to your group members. Attach rubric to front of paper. (Total of 100 points)

4. Chapter Summary/Reflective Journals: Guidelines for writing chapter summaries and reflective journals are given to you. You will be writing a journal for five chapters (of your choice) in the book. Chapters one (1) and nine (9) do NOT require journals. Journals must be handed in at the time the chapter is presented. Points will not be awarded for late journals. Rubric is NOT necessary unless points are taken off. In that case the professor will provide the rubric and explanation (10 points per journal.) (Total of 50 points for required chapters)

5. Video Questions: You will be watching several videos in class or as an assignment outside of class. Some of the videos are on the DVD supplied with our text, and others are in addition to the DVD. You will be required to answer questions for at least 10 videos that will be assigned, and handed in at the appropriate time (5 points each -- Total 50 points).

6. Weekly Participation Summary: Each week you will write at least a three (3) sentence summary of the discussions in class and your understanding of the topics being presented. You will also make notes of your weekly participation and contribution to the class. The summaries will be kept in date order for classes 1-7 and 8-13. They will be handed in with the Weekly Participation Summary Rubric and your “self-evaluation” twice during the semester. Each collection will be worth 25 points. (Total of 50 points)

7. E-pals Cross Cultural Project: You will each have an e-pal that you will be writing to and this interaction will broaden your cross cultural awareness. You and your e-pal will be reading three articles and exchanging how you feel about the topics. I hope you find it a great experience. (100 points)

8. Self-Evaluation. A self-evaluation will be required twice during the semester. You will be required to write at least a one-page written self-assessment (1) discussing connections you are making, (2) identifying the work you feel is your best effort so far in the course, (3) how you feel your thinking has changed or evolved over time, and (4) what you feel has been your most important contribution to class. Twenty-five (25) points per evaluation. (Total of 50 points).

9. Tests and Essays: Three or more tests/quizzes which may include essay questions will be administered during the semester. They may not be pre-announced. No make-up quizzes will be administered. (Total of 100 points)
