Course Format:

Interaction will take place through the Blackboard course site. Communication will include blogging and e-mail messaging. Course materials will be available through Blackboard documents.

In this course our focus will be on three Essential objectives (as assessed by the IDEA course evaluation system):

- Gaining a broader understanding and appreciation of intellectual/cultural activity (literature).
- Gaining factual knowledge (terminology, classifications, methods, trends).
- Developing specific skills, competencies, and points of view needed by professionals in the field most closely related to this course.

Course Content:

Unit One: Knowing Teen Literature
Unit Two: Understanding Young Adults
Unit Three: Pop Culture
Unit Four: Poetry
Unit Five: Modern Realistic Fiction
Unit Six: Historical Fiction
Unit Seven: Fantasy and Science Fiction
Unit Eight: Supernatural, Horror, and Mystery
Unit Nine: Informational Books and Biography
Unit Ten: Special Topics
Unit Eleven: Special Readers
Unit Twelve: Issues in Young Adult Literature
Unit Thirteen: Programming and Services

Course Requirements:

1) Professionalism/Participation. It is expected that graduate students be active, enthusiastic, and collegial participants during the semester. In addition, it is expected that course work is completed in a timely and professional manner on the schedule posted. Points are lost if these expectations are not fulfilled.

2) Assignments: Refer to detailed guidelines in Blackboard documents.
   a. Weekly Class Blogs. Discussions of 25 required young adult books. See individual Units for discussion questions.
   b. Teen Experience Journal. Part I – Interview a teen and observe a group of teens. Part II – Read one of each of the following books of your choice: manga, literary graphic novel, series book (paperback, numbered); Printz Award, Best Books for Young Adults (YALSA), Alex Award, Top Ten Teens, Quick Picks for Reluctant Readers, Young Adults’ Choices (IRA); read 5 “guy” books and 5 “100 Best Books;” view a movie based on a young adult book; listen to an audio book for young adults.
   c. Booktalk. Plan and deliver a booktalk of 3-5 books to a class of middle school or high school students in a school of your choice. Refer to documents and forms in Assignments.
   d. Young Adult Literature Essay. Write an essay based on YA NOVELS ONLY read for the class.

Evaluation (* indicates field-based activity):
Because your active participation is so important it is imperative that all assignments be submitted on due dates. All blogs and other assignments are due by midnight of the due date.

- Late Work: Blog entries made after midnight of the due date will NOT be accepted. Assignments submitted after midnight of the due date will receive late penalties. No late work will be accepted after May 9th. Emergency situations affecting due dates will be considered on an individual basis. If you are ill and have a doctor’s note, fax a copy to me to avoid late penalties.
- Rewrites: Rewritten assignments are accepted only if the content of the first one is unacceptable. Then points from the original assignment and the rewritten assignment will be averaged.
- All assignments must be completed in order to pass this course.

80-89 – B
70-79 – C
60-69 – D
Below 60 - F

Expectations:
Technology Requirements. It is expected that graduate candidates who register for this online course have the following computer skills: sending/receiving e-mail messages, attaching documents to e-mail messages, and conducting an online search. Microsoft Word is the word processing program that is necessary to complete assignments. It is necessary that students have access to a computer at home since much of the work for the course is done in the evenings and on weekends. It is expected that graduate students who register for this course feel comfortable using a computer. The course moves quickly and all students need to begin on the first official day of classes for the university. This is NOT a place to begin learning technology skills.

Student Syllabus Guidelines:
For detailed information about academic dishonesty, classroom rules of conduct, student absences on religious holy days, students with disabilities policy, and visitors in the classroom, go to the following university link:
www.shsu.edu/syllabus/

Academic Dishonesty:
Plagiarism is serious. In this class copying another student’s work (past or present) and allowing another student to copy your work will result in a failing grade on the assignment.
