REQUIRED TEXTS:

CONCEPTUAL FRAMEWORK:

Through programs dedicated to collaboration in instruction, field experience, and research, the candidates in Sam Houston State University’s Educator Preparation Programs acquire the knowledge, dispositions, and skills necessary to create a positive learning environment. Employing a variety of technologies, these candidates learn to plan, implement, assess, and modify instruction to meet the needs of diverse learners.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This web-enhanced course focuses on leadership for the improvement of instruction and includes current research on school and teaching effectiveness. Students work to transform theories into practical application for instructional supervision and leadership within the school setting.
Prerequisite: ASE 532 or concurrent enrollment.

LEARNER OUTCOMES:

This course emphasizes each of the above standards as each of those is tested at the State level on the Principal TEES test. To accomplish these objectives, this course emphasizes readings, discussion, case study, applied research, and field-based experiences using a mixed delivery system of face-to-face and web-based environments.
COURSE PERFORMANCE STANDARDS, KNOWLEDGE, AND SKILLS:
While completing an approved preparation program, all candidates for school principal certification in Texas must demonstrate general knowledge and skill competency related to the following standard areas established by the State Board of Educator Certification (SBEC): 1. Learner-Centered Values and Ethics of Leadership 2. Learner-Centered Leadership and Campus Culture 3. Learner-Centered Human Resources Leadership and Management 4. Learner-Centered Communications and Community Relations 5. Learner-Centered Organizational Leadership and Management 6. Learner-Centered Curriculum Planning and Development 7. Learner-Centered Instructional Leadership and Management.

These standards are assessed with the TExES certification exam for Principals which includes questions around the following nine competencies Competency 1. The principal knows how to shape campus culture by facilitating the development, articulation, implementation, and stewardship of a vision of learning that is shared and supported by the school community.

Competency 2. The principal knows how to communicate and collaborate with all members of the school community, respond to diverse interests and needs, and mobilize resources to promote student success.

Competency 3. The principal knows how to act with integrity, fairness, and in an ethical and legal manner.

Competency 4. The principal knows how to facilitate the design and implementation of curricula and strategic plans that enhance teaching and learning; ensure alignment of curriculum, instruction, resources, and assessment; and promote the use of varied assessments to measure student performance.

Competency 5. The principal knows how to advocate, nurture, and sustain an instructional program and a campus culture that are conducive to student learning and staff professional growth.

Competency 6. The principal knows how to implement a staff evaluation and development system to improve the performance of all staff members, select and implement appropriate models for supervision and staff development, and apply the legal requirements for personnel management.

Competency 7. The principal knows how to apply organizational, decision-making, and problem solving skills to ensure an effective learning environment.

Competency 8. The principal knows how to apply principles of effective leadership and management in relation to campus budgeting, personnel, resource utilization, financial management, and technology use.
Competency 9. The principal knows how to apply principles of leadership and management to the campus physical plant and support systems to ensure a safe and effective learning environment.

COURSE RATIONALE: This course is consistent with the mission of the University, the College of Education, and the Educational Leadership Program.
1. Sam Houston State University’s mission: “...enable its students to become informed, thoughtful, and productive citizens.”
2. College of Education “...provides students with opportunities to develop knowledge, skills, strategies, and experiences which allow them to serve in diverse roles and function productively in society.”
3. Educational Leadership Program: “To prepare educational leaders for real-world challenges and opportunities.”

NOTICE-AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT:
SHSU adheres to all applicable federal, state, and local laws, regulations, and guidelines with respect to providing reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities. If you have a disability that may affect adversely your work in this class, then I encourage you to register with the SHSU Counseling Center and to talk with me about how I can best help you. A student with a problem which handicaps his/her performance is expected to arrange for a conference with the instructor in order that appropriate strategies may be considered to assure participation and achievement opportunities are not impaired. Students are advised of the existence of the Committee for Continuing Assistance for Disabled Students and may request their services by calling (936) 294-1720. All disclosures of disabilities will be kept strictly confidential. NOTE: No accommodation can be made until you register with the Counseling Center.

RELIGIOUS HOLIDAYS:
An institution of higher education shall excuse a student from attending classes or other required activities, including examinations, for the observance of a religious holy day, including travel for that purpose. A student whose absence is excused under this subsection may not be penalized for that absence and shall be allowed to take an examination or complete an assignment from which the student is excused within a reasonable time after the absence. A student who plans to miss a class or required activity to observe a religious holy day should inform the professor in writing prior to a planned absence.

PERFORMANCE AND ASSESSMENT: The students’ performance of knowledge and skills as set forth in the attached schedule must be at an 80% level or better to assure successful completion of the program.

You must have a Sam Email Account (not to be forwarded to other email) and be able to access Blackboard to participate in this class. To successfully complete this course, students must actively use Blackboard minimally three times week.

D. On-Line Participation Guidelines:

Students are expected to log in regularly during the week and are expected to post substantive contributions to the discussion at those times.

While one collaborative learning team will be expected to lead a discussion over one of the chapters in the textbook, all class members have a responsibility to make the discussion one that is worthwhile, informative and at a high level of discourse. Participation points accumulate through leading and participating in online threaded discussions and participation in intra-group discussion sessions.

Students should plan to spend a minimum of three hours each week participating online in addition to time required to read and write assignments. Blackboard Discussion Grader and review of content in the discussions, along with Bb Course Statistics will be used to monitor student activity on the course website. Grades will be awarded based on consistent postings and the overall quality of content.

There will be no make-up work for missed threaded discussions in the Discussion Board. Students who fail to log on and interact by providing input to the discussion within the time scheduled will have missed the opportunity to earn these points.

Academic honesty is expected in all work. Violations will result in course failure. Please note that SHSU policy regarding academic honesty specifically addresses appropriate use of electronic files and media. The department regularly monitors student work through a university purchased service entitled “Turn-it-in.com.” In this program student work is compared to previous published work and a comparison (by percentage) is made of students’ work to that of the original authors’. Plagiarism (putting someone else’s work down as your own with no citation) is a serious violation of this policy.
Use of good “Netiquette” is essential in an online environment. Please observe common courtesies. Remember the people you “meet online” today may be the people you interview with tomorrow. Make a good impression now—It’s a small world and you just don’t know who you are going to see again!

Turning in Assignments:

Send your assignments through Assignment (Manager) by 11:30 pm on the date they are due. Assignments are considered late if sent to the professor after that. Please do not send assignments in before the week they are due, as this will make it more difficult to process assignments in a timely manner. Assignments should be sent as attachments and saved in Rich Text Format (RTF).
ASE 668 COURSE OUTLINE-Spring 2008

All assignments will be turned in by 11:30 pm on the date they are due using Assignment Manager in Blackboard (Bb), unless otherwise posted by the Instructor.

Introductory Unit #1 (January 23-30) Acclimation to Online Learning
Week – All Assignments due to be completed by January 30.

Get ready for the course by taking care of these tasks

1. Make sure your Sam email account is operational, and get acclimated to Blackboard.

2. Acquire textbooks.

3. Complete and send in a Student Information Card found in Course Documents. Send it to the instructor as an assignment through Course Docs—Due January 30th.

4. In Blackboard, locate the following items:
   a. Announcements,
   b. Course Information,
   c. Discussion Board,
   d. Communication,
   e. Course Documents. You will use this to view the assignment, attach and view your completed assignment
   f. Gradebook (in Tools). You will use this to view your grades.

Assignment #1. BB Class Introductions

Post email messages to the other members of your assigned Cooperative Learning Team (CLT). The group assignments can be found in Course Documents.

Once you have found your team, do the following:
   a) Introduce yourself and share your experiences with online courses and technology.
   b) Find at least 5 things you have in common.
   c) Create a group name based on your group's members' common attributes.
   d) Select a group leader and have the Group Leader and have this person send the name of your group and the leader's name to the instructor.

Your group name and group members will find their own personal discussion area to chat (synchronously and asynchronously) in COMMUNICATIONS-->GROUP PAGES
Unit #2 (January 30-February 13) Written Assignments Due by February 13.

1. Read Chapter 1 (Daresh) “In search of a definition”

2. Written Assignment #2 (Field-based): Interview one supervisor/administrator to determine the predominant view(s) regarding supervision and teachers as discussed in Chapter 1 of Daresh. Report your findings in a one page doubled-spaced summary. (10 points) (DUE February 13). Interviews may be conducted in person, on the phone or via email.

3. Read Chapter 2 (Daresh) “Personal Assumptions Guiding Supervisory Practice”

4. Participate in Group Discussion #1 over Chapters 1 & 2 (Daresh). (10 pts). Discussion should be continuous—you cannot respond to your other group members’ discussion on the last day (for example) and receive credit.

5. Study the Brown and Irby Model for Reflections in the Principal Portfolio. Review the model paper in Brown and Irby. Ask questions in BB if clarification is needed.

6. Write Reflection #1: Using the Brown and Irby Reflection Cycle, share what you learned/experienced on your interviews and in reading and discussing the different views of supervision (Artifacts – Daresh, Chapter 1 & 2, the discussion over Assignment #1, your interview notes). (10 pts)

Unit # 3 (February 13-February 27) Written Assignments Due by February 27.
