Course Description
This course is designed to introduce students to the theory and practice of special programs provided in the schools. These programs usually have special or categorical funds. Such programs have common characteristics regarding the receipt, application, and accountability of funds as well as the specifying of eligibility criteria and services for students. These programs will be examined with respect to their specific design and characteristics as well as the impact their implementation has on principal leadership and school climate.

Course Rationale
This course is consistent with the mission of Sam Houston State University, the College of Education and Applied Science and the Department of Educational Leadership and Counseling.

Text

Course Performance Standards, Knowledge and Skills
While completing an approved preparation program, all candidates for the principal certification in Texas must demonstrate general knowledge and skill competency related to the proficiency areas established by the State Board of Education Certification (SBEC) and the ELCC standards.

Learner Outcomes
In this course the major emphasis is placed on the following outcomes:

• The history of special programs in public education.
• The relationship between the regular curricular offerings special programs and site based management.
• The local school administrative problems such as time demands on administration and staff.
• The management functions of planning, organizing, staffing, implementing, and evaluating as basic tools in administering special programs.
• The state and federal requirements and accountability for the operation of special programs.
- The special programs and their impact on community relations
- The special programs budgets and their relationship to the regular budget processes and procedures.
- The process to correctly complete state and federal proposals commonly found in public schools.
- The factors involved in identifying, evaluating and placing special needs students.

Learning Activities

1. Program Project

Students will work in groups of 2 or 3 to research and present one program. Each group will present their program in their WIKI which will be located in the Assignments section of Blackboard.

Answer the following questions:
1. What are the personnel issues related to the area?
2. What are the federal/state regulations?
3. What are the managerial issues related to this area?
4. How does this area impact classroom instruction/class scheduling?
5. How is this program funded?
6. What are the issues related to state and federal accountability?

Presentations will be evaluated based on the grading rubric. Each presenter will provide an interactive WIKI that can be seen by each class member. Class participation at each is required.

2. Internship Activities

A Brown and Irby Reflection and an artifact are required for each activity. Turn in one copy for your professor and place the second copy in your internship portfolio under the ELCC standard.

SHSU STUDENT GUIDELINES

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY- All students are expected to engage in all academic pursuits in a manner that is above reproach. Students are expected to maintain honesty and integrity in the academic experiences both in and out of the classroom. Any student found guilty of dishonesty in any phase of academic work will be subject to disciplinary action. The University and its official representatives may initiate disciplinary proceedings against a student accused of any form of academic dishonesty including, but not limited to, cheating on an examination or other academic work which is to be submitted, plagiarism, collusion and the abuse of resource materials. For a complete listing of the university policy, see: http://www.shsu.edu/administrative/faculty/sectionb.html#dishonesty

STUDENT ABSENCES ON RELIGIOUS HOLY DAYS POLICY- Section 51.911(b) of the Texas Education Code requires that an institution of higher education excuse a student from attending classes or other required activities, including examinations, for the observance of a religious holy day, including travel for that purpose. Section 51.911 (a) (2) defines a religious holy day as: “a holy day observed by a religion whose places of worship are exempt from property taxation under Section 11.20….”. A student whose absence is excused under this subsection may not be penalized for that absence and shall be allowed to take an examination or complete an assignment from which the student is excused within a reasonable time after the absence.

University policy 861001 provides the procedures to be followed by the student and instructor. A student desiring to absent himself/herself from a scheduled class in order to observe (a) religious holy day(s) shall present to each instructor involved a written statement concerning the religious holy day(s). The instructor will complete a form notifying the student of a reasonable timeframe in which the missed assignments and/or examinations are to be completed. For a complete listing of the university policy, see: http://www.shsu.edu/~vaf_www/aps/documents/861001.pdf

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES POLICY- It is the policy of Sam Houston State University that individuals otherwise qualified shall not be excluded, solely by reason of their disability, from participation in any academic program of the University. Further, they shall not be denied the benefits of these programs nor shall they be subjected to discrimination. Students with disabilities that might affect their academic performance are expected to visit with the Office of Services for Students with Disabilities located in the Counseling Center. They should then make arrangements with their individual instructors so that appropriate strategies can be considered and helpful procedures can be developed to ensure that participation and achievement opportunities are not impaired.

SHSU adheres to all applicable federal, state, and local laws, regulations, and guidelines with respect to providing reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities. If you have a disability that may affect adversely your work in this class, then I encourage you to register with the SHSU Counseling Center and to talk with me about how I can best help you. All disclosures of disabilities will be kept strictly confidential. NOTE: No accommodation can be made until you register with the Counseling Center. For a complete listing of the University policy, see: http://www.shsu.edu/~vaf_www/aps/811006.html

VISITORS IN THE CLASSROOM Only registered students may attend online classes. Students wishing to audit a class must apply to do so through the Registrar’s Office.
