Reading Reflections

During the Summer II session, you will be assigned chapter readings. Your task is to read the chapters, and to write a reflection of the article. Each reflection should address the following.

1. What laws pertain to the particular subject(s) of the chapters? Look at federal laws and any court cases reported.
2. What is the history of the special program or population.
3. What is the role of the school administrator in managing and supervising the special program or service.

Each critique should be no more that 2 double-spaced pages. Critiques will be submitted on Blackboard.

Reflection on Experiences with Special Populations and Programs

Reflect on your experience with special populations and programs. Write this one reflection as you would in a personal journal. You DO NOT have to follow the Brown and Irby reflection cycle for this reflection. Three double-spaced pages MAXIMUM without the cover sheet. Submit in class.

N. Field Work Reflections: Embedded Activities for the Principal Internship

THESE ARE REFLECTION ACTIVITIES THAT YOU ARE TO COMPLETE USING THE BROWN/IRBY REFLECTION CYCLE. Place these reflections in your portfolio under the correct standard. (next page)
