Text/Readings:

Course Description:
This web-based course, CNE 592, will examine the socio-cultural characteristics of counseling issues related to the varied cultures in today’s society. Hispanic, African American, and Asian American cultures will be examined along with issues related to the elderly, persons with disabilities, women, gays, lesbians, and other under-represented members of the population.

Standards: The curricula for this course include (1) knowledge of the literature of the discipline and (2) ongoing student engagement in research related to professional practice. At the completion of this course, the student should be able to demonstrate the following competencies set forth by these professional and certification agencies (Course Objectives; CACREP [Council for Accreditation on Counseling & Related Educational Programs], SBEC [State Board for Educator Certification] Standards [TExES – Texas Examinations of Educator Standards], and NCATE [National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education]. Course objectives will be articulated with standards from other professional organizations. The following Standards Matrix will outline the Objectives/Learning Outcomes, Activities, Performance Assessment, and the Standards. For brevity, initials CA = CACREP, SB= SBEC, and NC = NCATE. Standards and competencies for these professional organizations are available through these websites.

Course (Individual Development & Educational Assessment/IDEA) Objectives:

Essential: 1) Developing specific skills, competencies, and points of view needed by professionals in the field most closely related to cross cultural/multicultural counseling (i.e. understanding culturally appropriate intervention strategies, identity development, and counseling and therapy with racial/ethnic minorities)

Important: 1) Developing a clearer understanding of and commitment to, personal values (understanding through discussion boards and reflection, your personal values as related to counseling racial/ethnic minorities; and

2) Learning to analyze and critically evaluate ideas, arguments, and points of view.

Student Syllabus Guidelines: You may find online a more detailed description of the following policies. These guidelines will also provide you with a link to the specific university policy or procedure: http://www.shsu.edu/syllabus/

Academic Dishonesty: Students are expected to maintain honesty and integrity in the academic experiences both in and out of the classroom. See Student Syllabus Guidelines.

Student Absences on Religious Holy Days: Students are allowed to miss class and other required activities, including examinations, for the observance of a religious holy day, including travel for that purpose. Students remain responsible for all work. See Student Syllabus Guidelines.

Students with Disabilities Policy: It is the policy of Sam Houston State University that individuals otherwise qualified shall not be excluded, solely by reason of their disability, from participation in any academic program of the university. Further, they shall not be denied the benefits of these programs nor shall they be subjected to discrimination. Students with disabilities that might affect their academic performance should visit with the Office of Services for Students with Disabilities located in the Counseling Center. See Student Syllabus Guidelines.

COUNSELING PROGRAM ATTENDANCE POLICY
The following represents the attendance policy for all courses in the Counseling Program:
1. Students are permitted to miss one class (3 Hours) with no penalty, but a call to the professor of the class is expected.
2. With a second absence, a drop of one letter grade will occur unless the student writes a letter to the Counseling Faculty explaining the extenuating circumstances for both of the absences. The Faculty will then discuss the letter in a meeting and decide if the letter grade drop will occur or if the student is excused from that action.
3. A drop of a letter grade will occur for each subsequent absence.

For purposes of this on-line class, failure to participate in a weekly discussion board or chat room will constitute an absence and will result in the loss of participation points for that week. Failure to participate for two different weeks will result in the loss of a letter grade.
Course Format:
This is a course that will survey and sample the various issues related to counseling under represented members of the population. It will also assist to identify and address personal points regarding the counseling relationship with various members of society. The course will consist of various reading materials, students’ participation in online group discussions, reflections, assessments, interviews, research of recent literature and other activities that may stimulate the growth and knowledge of ethnic/cultural studies.

On-line Participation Policy:
1. Use of good “Netiquette” is essential in an online environment. Please observe the following rules of common courtesy:
   a) Check the course website frequently and respond appropriately and on the subject.
   b) Focus on one subject per message or use pertinent subject titles.
   c) Capitalize words only to highlight an important point or for titles. Capitalizing otherwise is generally interpreted as SHOUTING.
   d) Be professional and careful with your online interactions. Remember that you should be comfortable with your statements if they were published on the front page of the local newspaper.
   e) Cite all quotes, references and sources.
   f) Never forward someone else’s messages without their permission, this is considered to be extremely rude.
   g) Use humor with care. The absence of face-to-face cues and body language can lead to misunderstandings. Feel free to use emoticons such as :) or ;) to communicate that you are being humorous.
   h) All postings should be of top quality, on time, and rich in text. This means no comments such as “at a boy”, “you go girl”, “I agree with that”, “couldn’t have said it better myself”, etc. will be considered master degree quality responses. Make sure to take the time to add richness to the discussion and make connections to the many theories in counseling, diversity and leadership that will be covered in this course. Remember, postings are tracked for quantity, quality, and punctuality of deadlines set forth.

(The above “Netiquette” guidelines were adapted from Rinaldi, A. (1994) The Net User Guidelines and Netiquette, Florida Atlantic University, available from Netcom.)

2. Students are expected to submit all assignments by electronic mail by the date indicated in the course syllabus. Assignments should be sent as attachments and saved in Rich Text Format.

3 Students are expected to log in regularly during the week and are expected to post a substantive contribution to the discussion at those times. Participation in the online discussions is required to pass this class. Those sessions substitute for class sessions on campus, so students should plan to spend about three hours each week participating online. Blackboard course statistics will be used to monitor student activity on the course website and grade points will be assessed on consistent postings and the overall quality of their content.
4 Graduate students are governed by the Sam Houston State University student code of conduct. Any student with questions about grievances, ethical behavior, etc. should review the Graduate Catalogue and student code of conduct. Particular attention should be paid to the sections on plagiarism and theft of library materials. Academic honesty is expected.

5 Students are expected to submit all assignments by electronic mail by the date indicated in this syllabus. Assignments should be sent as attachments and saved in Rich Text Format. Late work will not be accepted or awarded credit. There will be no make-up work.

6 Acts of cheating and plagiarism are not tolerated in the Counseling program. These offenses could result in failure of a course and/or dismissal from the program.
INSTRUCTIONAL PROCEDURES:
Everyone concerned must have an opportunity to furnish input, therefore, participation in the form of questions, discussion of related experiences, and involvement in individual work is solicited and will be expected.

INSTRUCTIONAL ASSIGNMENTS/ACTIVITIES:

   1. a. Read the chapter
   1. b. Review Chapter PowerPoint Presentation
   1. c. Participate in Discussion OR Complete a Reflection (You will be assigned to answer a discussion question or a write a reflection paper.)

   To participate in the discussion, take time to think about what you write and how it relates to the topic, cross cultural counseling and the specific discussion statement. You will be expected to make a minimum of two (2) entries per discussion. Please respond to the discussion question in your first entry and feedback to the comment(s) of your classmates in your second entry (75 words minimum for each entry). (Also refer to “h” under “On-line Participation Policy.”)

   A reflection is a one page (250 words minimum) double-spaced written comment that refers to the topic and expresses your thoughts about past experiences or insights that have new meaning based on what you are learning. Reflections are designed to help you make better discussions or improve relationships when working with people, in particular, those who are culturally diverse. 10 points each (120 points total)

1. d. Chapter Quiz-10 points each- (100 pts total). Each chapter has a quiz. There are five (5) multiple questions with ONLY one opportunity to get each question right. Each question is 2 points. You have ONLY ten minutes to complete a quiz. Make sure to study the chapter thoroughly before you take the quiz.

2. Two Introspective Essays (25 points each; 2 - 4 pages minimum)
   1. Discuss an experience or experiences you personally have had with racism, discrimination, or prejudice and how you are affected by the experience(s).
   2. Develop and discuss your personal value system and counseling philosophy related to persons who are culturally different from you.

3. Community Interviews (25 points; 2 – 4 pages minimum)
   Each student will conduct ONE interview with one of the following community leaders.
   1. Interview a religious or spiritual leader from a perspective that is different from your own. For example, if you consider yourself Christian you must interview a spiritual leader from a non-Christian background.
   2. Interview a leader from a cultural group where English is a second language.
   3. Interview the leader of a program that focuses on providing services to the homeless and poor.
For each of the interviews complete the following:
A. Provide a rationale for choosing the person you interviewed.
B. Describe the program they represent.
C. Describe the services provided by the program.
D. Describe what you learned about the individual and the population that he or she works with.

ASSUMPTIONS

This class is operating on the “assumption” that you want to gain the most you can from the class and will therefore, invest yourself in readings and assignments and come to every class prepared to engage fully. I trust you will work to balance effectively your personal, academic, and professional commitment.

I assume the following:
- You will take responsibility for your own learning
- You will contribute to others’ learning
- You will ask for help when you need it

You can assume the following:
- I care deeply about your success---personally, academically, and professionally
- I want you to gain the most possible from this experience
- I am committed to my role in this venture
- I want to hear your experiences, ideas, and feedback
- I will hold you accountable to high (and reasonable) academic standards
