Participation in class assignments and activities

Religious Holy Days Policy: Section 51.911(b) of the Texas Education Code requires that an institution of higher education excuse a student from attending classes or other required activities, including examinations, for the observance of a religious holy day, including travel for that purpose. A student whose absence is excused under this subsection may not be penalized for that absence and shall be allowed to take an examination or complete an assignment from which the student is excused within a reasonable time after the absence.

Students with Disabilities: It is the policy of Sam Houston State University that individuals otherwise qualified shall not be excluded, solely by reason of their disability, from participation in any academic program of the university. Further, they shall not be denied the benefits of these programs nor shall they be subjected to discrimination. Students with disabilities may request help with academically related problems stemming from individual disabilities from their instructors, school/department chair or by contacting the Chair of the Committee for Continuing Assistance for Disabled Students and Director of the Counseling Center, Lee Drain Annex, or by calling (936) 294-1720.

NOTE: Students with a disability that affects academic performance are expected to arrange for a conference with the instructor in order that appropriate strategies can be considered to ensure that participation and achievement opportunities are not impaired. The physically impaired may contact the Director of the Counseling Center as chair of the Committee for Continuing Assistance for Disabled Students by telephone (extension 1720).

Electronic Devices: All cell phones, computers, and other electronic devices should be turned off during class. Unless directed otherwise by the professor.

Late Work: All course work is due on the date specified. Late work will not be accepted or awarded credit, unless the student and the professor have made an agreement regarding an unusual circumstance.

Attendance: Participation is both expected and required in class. Attendance is expected at all class sessions. Make every effort to arrive to class on time.
Academic Honesty: Academic honesty is expected. Plagiarism is a violation and will result in course failure. A report will be made to Dr. Beverly Irby, Department Chair and Dr. Genevieve Brown, Dean.

Student Conduct: Graduate students are governed by the SHSU’s policies related to student conduct. Any student with questions about grievances, ethical behavior, etc., should review the SHSU Graduate Catalog and the Texas State University System Rules and Regulations, Chapter VI, Student Services and Activities, Section 5 Student Conduct and Discipline. Those rules may be found at http://www.tsus.edu/pubs/Pubs/rules_regs.html. Particular attention should be paid to the sections on plagiarism and theft of library materials. Students should practice self-discipline in classes. Courtesy should be extended to all students. Thought should be given to the value of all conversation in class to all students in class. Classes will be more enjoyable and beneficial to all involved if graduate students conduct themselves as conscientious professionals.

Course Concerns: Please see the professor if there are any concerns before consulting the department chair or other program administrator.

Course Requirements: The professor(s) reserves the right to alter course requirements and/or the class schedule to better address the learning needs of the students.

Assignment: Interview a Profession in the Field

Using the list of questions below as a guide, interview one of the following mental health professionals:
human services worker, family therapist, social worker, licensed professional counselor, psychiatrist, psychologist, psychiatric nurse, school counselor, substance abuse counselor, or crisis hotline counselor. (A professional can be interviewed by only one member of the class).

I. Questions:

1. Why did you decide to enter the chosen profession?
2. What degree(s) do you hold?
3. What is your theoretical orientation of the professional? Has this changed since you entered the profession?
4. What are the job roles and functions as defined by the professional?
5. What could one entering this field expect as an entry-level salary?
6. What is your view of the differences among the varying helping professions?
7. What professional association(s) do you belong to?
8. What credentials, license, certifications, etc. do you hold?
9. What are your career aspirations?
10. Is there a different degree that would better prepare you to do the job you are doing?
11. How has the field changed since you began working as a professional in the field?
12. In your opinion, what are the future trends in the field?
13. Have you and a client had difficulty working together because of a difference in your value systems? If so, describe the situation(s).
14. How do you think your values influence the way you counsel?
15. Describe a success story with a client.
16 + Additional questions (more than one) appropriate to the field or individual you are interviewing. This portion is worth half of the overall grade.

II. Conclusion -

Discuss the interview experience and provide your personal reaction, comments, concerns, ideas, thoughts, what you learned new questions you have, etc. This should be on longer than one page in length.

Assignment Format:

The assignment is to be typed using double-spacing. For Section I. (Questions) number each question, type the question and the interviewee’s response. For lengthy responses you may summarize the key points. Section II. (Conclusion) is to be written in paragraph format.
