

Sam Houston Writing Project

SUMMER INSTITUTE

July 6-31, 2009

The Summer Institute is a workshop in teaching writing and language arts for teachers in grades K-University. This year, we're inviting applications for either of two options: (1) six hours of graduate credit or (2) 90 hours of professional development credit. Participants who seek graduate credit will receive a stipend that will cover the costs of tuition and fees, and books will be provided. Participants who opt for professional development credit will receive books. This year's Summer Institute will take place in The University Center in The Woodlands. It'll run daily, July 6-31, from 8:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Please complete the application and submit it to either:

Nancy Votteler
Department of Language, Literacy, & Special Populations
P.O. Box 2119--SHSU
Huntsville, TX 77341
nkvtoteler@shsu.edu

Bill Bridges
Department of English
P.O. Box 2146--SHSU
Huntsville, TX 77341
bridges@shsu.edu

We accept applications via U.S. mail and email.

Name _____ Grade(s) taught _____

Mailing Address _____

Phones (Home) _____ (School) _____ (Cell) _____

Email _____

School _____ Years taught _____

Credit preference (Graduate) _____ (Professional Development) _____

If you have any questions, either email Nancy or Bill or call us at (936) 294-1138 (Nancy) or (936) 294-3142 (Bill).

The Sam Houston Writing Project is sponsored by a grant from the National Writing Project and with the generous support of Sam Houston State University's Department of Language, Literacy, & Special Populations and Department of English.