

Table of Contents

The Editors	Editor's Introduction	iii
Börje Vähämäki University of Toronto	Bringing the Kalevala to the World	1
Thomas A. DuBois University of Wisconsin-Madison	Poem 30: The Pivotal Canto in which Very Little Happens	5
Lotte Tarkka University of Helsinki	The Displaced Bard	17
Tuija Wahlroos Museum Director The Gallen-Kallela Museum	Devoted to Kalevala : Perspectives on Akseli Gallen-Kallela's Kalevala Art	28
Seppo Knuutila University of Eastern Finland	Kalevala , Myths and Visual Arts	38
Kalevi Aho Independent Composer	The Kalevala and Finnish Music	45
Kari Kallioniemi & Kimi Kärki University of Turku	The Kalevala , Popular Music, and National Culture	61
Kimmo Laine University of Tampere & Hannu Salmi University of Turku	From Sampo to The Age of Iron : Cinematic Interpretations of the Kalevala	73
Beth L. Virtanen Finlandia University	Kalevala Incarnations in Finnish-American Science Fiction and Fantasy	85
Pertti Anttonen University of Helsinki	Nationalism and Universalism in the Reception of the Kalevala	95
Book Review	Kirsti Mäkinen. The Kalevala: Tales of Magic and Adventure . Translated by Kaarina Brooks. Original title Suomen lasten Kalevala . Reviewed by Börje Vähämäki.	102