

A Night in the American West

The Sam Houston State University History Department along with Dr. Crane's History 470 course and the Webb Society present a Night in the American West. Come experience a historical and education evening reviewing and experiencing the American West. Western food will be served and the No Foolin String Band will be performing Bluegrass music. SHSU students will be giving presentations on historical and creative writings of the west. A Night in the American West will be on November 11 at 5 p.m. The event will be held at the Sam Houston Woodland House located in the Sam Houston Memorial Park.
