

Population of the several Counties in Massachusetts, according to the late census.

|                              |        |                |                |
|------------------------------|--------|----------------|----------------|
| Suffolk,                     | 44,877 | Barnstable,    | 17,354         |
| Essex,                       | 57,913 | Duke's County, | 3,265          |
| Middlesex,                   | 42,737 | Nantucket,     | 4,620          |
| Hampshire,                   | 59,681 | Worcester      | 56,807         |
| Plymouth,                    | 29,535 | Berkshire,     | 30,291         |
| Bristol,                     | 31,709 |                |                |
| Total number of inhabitants, |        |                | 378,787 |

Of this number 5463 are Negroes, Mulattoes and Indians—No slaves.

The number of Houses in the above counties is 54,477—Families, 65,779,

The inhabitants of the District of Maine, are not included in the above, are supposed to amount to 90 or 100,000; which makes the whole number in this State, 470,000 or 430,000 persons.

The number of inhabitants in the State of South-Carolina is 126,131.