Honors Core Courses

- BIOL 1313 (Section 04, CRN 23376). General Zoology. TR 8:00 am-9:20 am
- ENGL 2331 (Section 08, CRN 20522). World Literature I. TR 12:30 pm-1:50 pm
  Satisfies the core humanities requirement for all students.
- HIST 1302 (Section 09, CRN 20739). American History since 1879. TR 11:00-12:20 pm
  Satisfies the second core history requirement.
- KINE 2333 (Section 01, CRN 21266). Honors Fitness for Living. MWF 9:00 am-9:50 am
  May be taken in lieu of KINE 2115 to satisfy the core requirement. Note: 3 hours honor credit.
- POLS 2302 (Section 08, CRN 20099). American Public Policy. MWF 12:00 pm-12:50 pm
  Satisfies the second core political science requirement.

Honors Seminars

- HONR 1331 (CRN 23569). Honors Seminar I (The Environment). MW 1:30 pm-2:50 pm
  This course is not a hard-science course. It is for any majors. This topic is an interdisciplinary examination of the environment and environmental issues, with professors from within and outside the sciences.
- HONR 2375 (CRN 23570). Honors Seminar in Fine Arts TR 8:00 am-9:20 am
  A hands-on study of the fine arts through art, dance, music, and theater
- HONR 3332 (CRN 23571). Honors Seminar in the Humanities TR 3:00 pm-4:20 pm
  A study of the culture (not the theory) of American music, from early ballads through rock and roll
- HONR 3375 (CRN 23661). Honors Dialogues Seminar MW 3:00 pm-4:20 pm
  Note: The Dialogues Seminar now has its own separate course number. The topic for the spring is animal rights, featuring faculty from the sciences, philosophy, and animal science.

The Honors Thesis

- HONR 4375 (CRN 23572). The Honors Thesis
  The honors thesis requires two semesters of registration in HONR 4375. See Dr. Young with questions about the honors thesis.