

I. GENERAL

- A. Sam Houston State University students, faculty, staff, alumni, and their guests are eligible to use the facilities of the Lowman Student Center.
 - 1. All use must be conducted in accordance with local, state, and national law and in accordance with applicable rules, regulations, policies and procedures of the Texas State University System and Sam Houston State University.
 - 2. Use will not disrupt or disturb the academic or university program and will not result in damage to or defacement of any facilities of the Lowman Student Center.
 - 3. Persons using the Lowman Student Center facilities will abide by the Lowman Student Center Operations Policy and all other campus policies, procedures, rules, and regulations.
- B. Sam Houston State University students have priority over non-students in the use of all public areas of the Lowman Student Center.
- C. Regular building operational hours for the Lowman Student Center are:

Monday - Thursday	7 am - 10 pm
Friday	7 am - 7 pm
Saturday	10 am - 10 pm
Sunday	3 pm - 10 pm

- 1. Hours will vary during university holidays, university closings, semester breaks, and summer.
 - 2. Changes to the regular building hours must be approved by the Director of the Lowman Student Center and Student Activities.
- D. Furnishings and equipment of the Lowman Student Center are not to be removed from the building for any reason.
- E. Improper use of furniture, fixtures, or equipment is not permitted. Individuals or groups using Lowman Student Center facilities are responsible for the behavior of their guests and any damages to Lowman Student Center property due to their negligence or vandalism. Damage costs will be assessed to the individual or group responsible for the damage.
- F. Individuals or groups using the Lowman Student Center facilities must leave them in a condition comparable to that found at the time of occupancy.
- G. Any physical changes to an area must be approved by the Lowman Student Center office. Any unauthorized alterations will be corrected at the expense of the organization or individual using the facility according to the current Lowman Student Center Fee Schedule.
- H. Animals or pets of any kind are not permitted in the Lowman Student Center at any time. The only exception to this policy is guide animals for the physically challenged or animals used in law enforcement.
- I. The use of tobacco products is prohibited.
- J. Gambling is prohibited.
- K. Bicycles, skateboards, or roller skates/blades are prohibited inside the building.
- L. Bicycles should be parked in bicycle racks outside and adjacent to the Lowman Student Center. Bicycles found parked on porches or inside are subject to impoundment and a fine assessment.

- W. Sound levels of events will not disrupt normal operations in the Lowman Student Center.
- X. Electrical circuits, telephone outlets or computer connections will not be altered or connected to, except through provided outlets or by special arrangements through the reservations office or the Director of the Lowman Student Center and Student Activities.
- Y. Failure to comply with this policy or with persons enforcing this policy may result in suspension of privileges to use the Lowman Student Center and/or lead to further action under the SHSU Student Guidelines.

II. RESERVATIONS

- A. Philosophy – The philosophy behind the Lowman Student Center reservations policy is to maximize the use of space, facilities, and services of the Lowman Student Center for the broadest number of organizations and groups. The following policies establish the guidelines and means for implementing the most effective use of Lowman Student Center facilities.
- B. Priority – Reservations generally are taken and honored on a first come, first serve basis. However, in unusual circumstances, it may be necessary to alter reservations based on the following priority:
 - 1. Any organization or group which has a direct connection with the university such as registered student organizations, university departments, and administrative groups whose financial support is derived from state appropriated or local university funds.
 - 2. Any organization or group having a direct connection with some phase of university activity, but whose financial support is provided by outside sources.
 - 3. Any outside, off-campus organization or group having no direct connection with the University, but is officially invited to convene here, subject to policies approved by the University President.
 - a. Off-campus organizations may use Lowman Student Center facilities subject to established Lowman Student Center Operations Policy
 - b. Summer camps, clinics, conferences, and/or workshops may use Lowman Student Center facilities and are to be scheduled through the SHSU Office of Continuing Education.
- C. Fee Schedule

1. Fees will be charged according to the current Lowman Student Center Fee Schedule.
2. Facility Rental Fees
 - a. Campus Organizations and University Departments – Officially registered campus organizations (student, faculty, or staff), and university departments may reserve the Lowman Student Center facilities and services.
 - (1) Generally, use of Lowman Student Center facilities is free to campus organizations and university departments. However, applicable auxiliary charges or service fees will be assessed (See Lowman Student Center Fee Schedule).
 - (2) If a campus organization or university department charges an admission fee, registration fee, or any other fee including receiving an offering resulting in income generation for the sponsoring organization or their guests, the room rental fee for Student Organization Fundraiser or University Department Fundraiser will apply. (See Lowman Student Center Fee Schedule).
 - b. Individual Students and University Personnel – Current SHSU students, faculty, and staff may use Lowman Student Center facilities subject to the same policies as applicable in Section II.C.2.a.
 - (1) Limited use of appropriate Lowman Student Center facilities may be extended to individual students, faculty, or staff for personal use for appropriate functions, such as weddings, wedding receptions, wedding or baby showers, birthday parties and/or retirement parties.
 - (2) The room rental fee for Individual Students and University Personnel will apply. (See Lowman Student Center Fee Schedule).
 - (3) Groups Unaffiliated with University or Off-Campus Groups Sponsored by University Department or Registered Student Organization – Officially registered student organizations or university departments entering into joint sponsorship with individuals, groups, or students that are not officially registered/affiliated with the Sam Houston State University may use Lowman Student Center facilities subject to the same policies as applicable in Section II.C.2.a
 - (4) The room rental fee for Groups Unaffiliated with University or Off-Campus Groups Sponsored by University Department or Student Organization will apply. (See Lowman Student Center Fee Schedule).
 - c. Off-Campus Groups - Any organization or group that is not a campus organization, university department, or university sponsored organization will be considered an off-campus group. Outside organizations are further defined as organizations or groups having no direct connection with the university, but who are officially invited to convene here subject to policies approved by the university president. These groups are subject to the same policies as applicable in Section II.C.2.a.
 - (1) Facilities of the Lowman Student Center may be used by off-campus groups subject to the Lowman Student Center Operations Policy, rental fee schedule, and other applicable charges.
 - (2) Continuing Education has been designated as the primary office to coordinate summer events (camps, clinics, conferences, and workshops) for the university.
3. Auxiliary Charges/Service Fees
 - a. Security Services - The customary ratio for a special event is one officer for every 100 in attendance at an event. There will be a minimum of four (4) officers required for special events, unless waived by SHSU's Department of Public Safety. Security services must be arranged through SHSU's Department of Public Safety Services. Cash payment must be received by that department at least 48 hours in advance of the scheduled event or the event will be cancelled. If officers are not available to work the event, the event cannot be held in the Lowman Student Center and will be cancelled.

- b. Events that begin or continue beyond the normal building operational hours must be scheduled at least one (1) week prior to the event and are subject to early opening or late closing fees according to the current Lowman Student Center Fee Schedule.
 - (1) Requests for early opening, late closing or opening when the Lowman Student Center is closed must be submitted in writing to the Director of the Lowman Student Center and Student Activities using the form provided by Lowman Student Center office. The request must be made at least one week prior to the scheduled event. There is a four (4) hour minimum for opening when the Lowman Student Center is scheduled to be closed.
 - (2) Activities must conclude one-half hour prior to the agreed late closing time to allow participants time to vacate the facility and the building to be secured.
 - (3) Late closings as a result of an extended program, without prior arrangements, will result in an assessed late closing fee, according to the Lowman Student Center Fee Schedule, until the building is closed and secured.
 - c. Late Cancellation Fees – Failure to use or cancel use of reserved facilities at least two (2) business days prior to scheduled time of use may result in an assessed late cancellation fee according to the current Lowman Student Center Fee Schedule.
 - d. Room set-ups or other facility furniture or equipment may not be changed or moved by individuals or organizations. Only Lowman Student Center personnel are authorized to move equipment, tables, chairs, plants, etc. Violation of this policy may result in reservation privileges being revoked or other appropriate disciplinary action. Any unauthorized alterations will be corrected at the expense of the organization using the facility according to the current Lowman Student Center Fee Schedule.
 - e. Damage to any facility and/or equipment by group members and/or guests may result in appropriate charges and/or disciplinary action for the sponsoring entity.
 - f. Leaving the facility in an unusually unclean condition will result in a clean-up charge.
 - g. In cases not clearly defined or for the rental of other facilities not listed above, the charges will be established by the Director of the Lowman Student Center and Student Activities.
- D. Facility Reservations
- 1. Policies
 - a. All requests for use of Lowman Student Center facilities must be made through the reservations office by completing and returning an “LSC Reservation Request” form to the Lowman Student Center office. Rooms are not guaranteed until a confirmation has been issued.

 - c. Advance reservations for registered student organizations and university departments will not be confirmed more than one year in advance of the event. Advance reservations for outside, off-campus organizations will not be confirmed more than six months in advance of the event.
 - d. Proposed use of Lowman Student Center facilities must be appropriate and suited to the size, structure, purpose, and operational cost of the facility.
 - e. The reservations office reserves the right to change a reservation to another room in order to accommodate the greatest number of organizations with the understanding that, if possible, a comparable room will be provided.
 - f. Changes to the standard arrangement of furniture and equipment in a reserved space must be requested through the reservations office at least two (2) business days prior to scheduled event. After initial set-up, changes will be made only as time and personnel permit.
 - (1) Lowman Student Center personnel will provide, at no charge, one initial room or facility set-up as requested. A facility set-up change fee of $50 will be charged to the group or individual requesting the change after the initial set-up.

- (2) Individuals or groups will be required to pay for special services or facilities. Charges may include, but are not limited to special lighting, security, projectionist, spotlight operator, or other technical assistance.
 - g. Failure to notify the reservations office of a cancellation two (2) business days in advance of scheduled use will result in a late cancellation fee being assessed (see Lowman Student Center Fee Schedule).
 - h. Any organization wishing to use Lowman Student Center space for recruiting on campus for jobs must have authorization and reservation made by SHSU Career Services.
 - i. Commercial enterprises are not permitted to reserve or use space in the Lowman Student Center for purposes of promotion or sales; unless they are participating in Bearkat Mania, have a contract with the university or are associated with an enterprise that has a contract with the university. A per table vendor fee will be assessed according to the current Lowman Student Center Fee Schedule.
 - j. Social events that are fundraisers sponsored by university groups and attract a large number of off-campus attendees have a 500 person limit.
 - k. Facilities reserved for events will not be used in excess of their capacity.
 - m. Off-Campus Speakers in University Facilities
 - (1) No invitation by a registered student, faculty or staff organization will be issued to an outside speaker without prior written concurrence of a person or committee as may be designated by the university president for scheduling of speaker dates and assignment of campus facilities. (see Student Guidelines)
 - (2) All procedures outlined in the Student Guidelines will be followed. Off campus speaker forms are available in the Lowman Student Center office.
 - (3) To reserve the Lowman Student Center for an off-campus speaker a copy of the written university approval to have an outside speaker must be submitted to the Lowman Student Center at the time the reservation is made.
 - n. All contracts related to the presentation of an event in the Lowman Student Center, including contracts between user and performers, speakers, sub-contractors, managers, and others, are subject to review by the Director of the Lowman Student Center and Student Activities.
 - o. Groups and individuals with an outstanding bill or debt owed to the Lowman Student Center will have their reservation privileges in the facility suspended until the debt is paid in full.

 - 2. Glitter, confetti, rice, sand, hay, metallic sprinkles and/or similar materials.
 - 3. Crepe paper because of the possibility of stain damage and fire hazard.
 - 4. Lights, ribbons and/or decorations that are attached to stage curtains, drapes, artificial plants or other building fabrics.
 - 5. Special effects equipment such as smoke machines, bubble machines, fog machines, etc. Special arrangements and approval by the director of the Lowman Student Center and Student Activities must be granted prior to installation and use of - any special effects equipment such as mirror ball, fountain, etc.

- J. All decorations must be removed immediately following the event. Exceptions must be made in advance with the Lowman Student Center reservations office to avoid forfeiture of deposit. Extended storage may result in forfeiture of deposit. The Lowman Student Center is not responsible for any articles temporarily stored, left, or lost in the building.
 - K. All large wooden, metal, plastic, cardboard, or other decoration materials will not be discarded in Lowman Student Center or university trash containers or dumpsters. It is the responsibility of the individual or group reserving the facility to properly remove such items from campus.
 - L. Decorations cannot block or cover doors, exit signs, fire safety equipment, or view panels on doors.

IV. FOOD

- A. All food service in the Lowman Student Center must be provided through the university catering service. Food service is defined as any type of meal and includes the serving of refreshments such as soft drinks and cookies. Exceptions are as follows:
 - 1. Officially registered student organizations and university departments may provide and serve their own refreshments for their exclusive use in third floor meeting rooms only. Refreshments may only be provided for the number of people less than or equal to the maximum room occupancy. Refreshments are defined as coffee, tea, punch (no red-colored punch), carbonated beverages, cookies, cake, donuts and chips/dips. The reservations office must be notified and approval received at least one (1) business day in advance of serving of refreshments. Clean-up is the responsibility of the sponsoring organization or department. All food and trash must be removed and placed in the trash containers in the halls.
 - 2. Failure to comply with the above policy may result in the denial or cancellation of future reservations.
- B. Any other variation or exception to the food service policy must be approved in advance by the Director of the Lowman Student Center and Student Activities in consultation with the university food services director.
- C. The Lowman Student Center provides facilities for a variety of catered events. Facility reservations must be scheduled through the Lowman Student Center reservations office. Following confirmation of available space, the menu and type of food service must be made through the university catering service. Reservations for major events utilizing catering service should be made no later than two (2) weeks prior to the event.
- D. Food and beverage are not permitted in the art gallery except in conjunction with an approved reception coordinated through the university catering/food service.
- E. No red-colored punch is allowed in the Lowman Student Center.

V. ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES

- A. The following policy applies to alcoholic beverage service in the Lowman Student Center.
 - 1. Sponsoring organizations desiring to have alcoholic beverages served in conjunction with an event scheduled in the Lowman Student Center must complete and return to the Lowman Student Center reservations office a "Request for Alcoholic Beverage Service" form. The form must be completed and returned to the Lowman Student Center Office (Lowman Student Center 303) at least fifteen (15) business days prior to the event. The request requires the approval signature of several university administrators including the President of the University.
 - 2. The furnishing or sale of alcoholic beverages in the Lowman Student Center is to be restricted solely to the alcoholic beverage license holder for SHSU. No individuals, groups, or associations other than the SHSU alcoholic beverage license holder may furnish or sell alcoholic beverages upon the premises of the Lowman Student Center for consumption by themselves or others.
 - 3. Keg beer is not allowed in the Lowman Student Center.
 - 4. The SHSU alcoholic beverage license holder may dispense the full range of alcoholic beverages for approved special events.

5. The consumption and possession of alcoholic beverages is limited to the room in which the catered event occurs.
 6. Alcoholic beverages are not permitted in any public area of the Lowman Student Center.
- B. Alcoholic beverage sales and/or service in the Lowman Student Center are divided into two categories. The categories are established as Catered Events or University-Sanctioned Events.
1. Catered Events
 - a. Catered events are closed, private, controlled-access events.
 - b. The sponsoring organization is responsible for controlling access to the event and individual access to alcoholic beverages to assure compliance with state law.
 2. University-Sanctioned Events
 - a. University sanctioned events are those functions which are permitted in the Lowman Student Center and are open to the public and/or for which there is a door charge, but where specific invitations have not been issued.
 - b. The responsible party for university-sanctioned events is the university entity reserving the facility and completing the "Request for Alcoholic Beverage Service" form.
- C. Violations
1. Suspected violations of University or Lowman Student Center policy, but not state law, will be referred to the Dean of Students. The Dean of Students will review the violations and may refer the violation to the proper authority for adjudication.
 2. Violations of state law will be referred to University Police.
- D. Security
1. One or more uniformed University Police officers are required to be on duty throughout the duration of an event serving alcoholic beverages. Expense for this service will be assessed to the sponsoring organization.
 2. If payment for security is to be paid from non-university funds, agreed amount must be paid in cash to SHSU's Department of Public Safety 48 hours prior to the event.
 3. If payment for security is to be paid from university funds, agreed amount must be paid on an interdepartmental order directly to SHSU's Department of Public Safety 48 hours prior to the event.

VI. POSTING

- A. Registered student organizations and university departments may post printed materials on Lowman Student Center bulletin boards with stamped approval of a Student Activities full-time staff member. Bulletin boards are located next to the Kat Klub, on the first floor, and on the landings of the center stairs between the first and third floors.
- B. Posted materials must conform to the following general rules:
1. May not exceed an overall size of 14" x 22".
 2. May be posted for a period not to exceed two (2) weeks or until the conclusion of the event, whichever occurs first. Each student or campus organization is responsible for removing its materials as soon as the event is over. Failure to properly remove outdated materials may result in denial of future posting privileges.
 3. Must not cover prior posted materials or extend beyond the edges of the bulletin board.
 4. Defaced material is subject to removal.
 5. Must identify campus affiliate, sponsoring registered student organization, and the name, date and time of event.
 6. Materials posted in violation of printed policies are subject to removal and sanctions by the university.
 7. Posted materials for co-sponsored activities will not emphasize the off-campus sponsor. The emphasis should be on the sponsoring registered student organization.
 8. Posted materials advertising alcohol-related functions must conform to University regulations pertaining to advertising alcohol-related functions on campus advertisements.

9. Posted materials will not contain obscene words or promote unlawful activity.
10. Special printed materials such as banners, spirit posters, special activity posters, etc., may be posted in designated places.
11. Off-campus flyers or posters, including commercial advertising, may be posted on general bulletin boards as designated. All general boards will be cleared at the beginning of each month.
