GUEST ARTISTS

Ferenc Illenyi

Ferenc Illenyi, violin, is a native of Hungary where his first teacher was his father, a violinist with the Hungarian State Opera. He made his debut in Budapest performing the Beethoven and Tchaikovsky violin concertos. He has performed recitals in Hungary, Germany, Switzerland, Canada and the United States, and has recorded works by Paganini, Saint-Saëns and Schubert for Hungarian radio and television. He has a master's degree in music from the Liszt Music Academy in Budapest and has done graduate work at the Banff Center in Alberta, Canada, the University of Notre Dame in South Bend, IN, Rice University's Shepherd School of Music and the University of Houston's Moores School of Music. Mr. Illenyi has been a member of the Houston Symphony since 1991.

Scott Holshouser

Scott Holshouser, principal keyboardist with the Houston Symphony, has been a member of the orchestra since 1980. He began his musical training in Athens, GA and attended Florida State University before moving to Houston to continue his studies at the University of Houston. He is now a member of the faculty at the University of Houston's Moores School of Music. He is a former staff pianist with the Houston Ballet and the Houston Grand Opera and presently is the accompanist for the Houston Symphony Chorus, the Ima Hogg National Young Artist Competition and the Corpus Christi Young Artist Competition.
