

Dr. Wanda Bamberg

College of Education Commencement

Speaker December 2009

Dr. Wanda Bamberg serves as the superintendent of schools for Aldine ISD. She received her bachelor's degree in English from the University of Alabama in 1977, and her master's degree in secondary education from the same university in 1979. She received her doctorate in educational leadership from Sam Houston State University in 2004. Dr. Bamberg is certified as a superintendent.

She began her teaching career in the Tuscaloosa County School District in 1977 where she taught middle school and high school English. In 1982, Dr. Bamberg moved to the Houston area and joined Aldine ISD as an English and reading teacher. In 1987, she moved to the district curriculum office as the program director of middle school language arts. Later she was promoted to Director of Curriculum Instruction, Executive Director of Curriculum Instruction and Assistant Superintendent of Curriculum Instruction. In January of 2007, the Aldine ISD Board of Education unanimously approved naming Dr. Bamberg as the successor to Nadine Kujawa as Aldine ISD's Superintendent of Schools.

Dr. Bamberg has 31 years of experience in the field of education and she has spent 27 of those years in Aldine ISD. Dr. Bamberg and her husband David have a son, who is a freshman in college.