M.A. in Spanish
Department of Foreign Languages

Registration opens March 25nd

Summer I courses:
May 30 - June 27, 2013

SPAN 4370.02  Human Rights in Latin American Literature
Dr. Rafael Saumell: SHSU Main Campus – Huntsville
ABIV Rm 301  Mon-Fri 12:00-1:50

SPN 4370  Human Rights in Latin American Literature
This course focuses on the literary expressions of Human Rights through various Hispanic cultures and literatures by focusing on authors, human rights issues, and contemporary social and political issues from Latin America. This course is intended for both undergraduate and graduate students. Readings and discussions are in Spanish.

SPAN 5332.01  Spanish Golden Age Literature
Dr. Debra Andrist/ On-line

SPN 5332  Spanish Golden Age Literature
This course is an in-depth study of the Spanish Golden Age (1500-1700), including authors, works, the concepts of Renaissance, Baroque, Picaresque, poetry, comedies written by Tirso de Molina, Lope de Vega and Calderón de la Barca. The materials are read and discussed in Spanish.

SPAN 5372.01  Spanish for Technical Composition
Dr. Al Policarpo/ On-line

SPN 5372  Spanish for Technical Composition
This course focuses on forms of exposition, including narration, to develop students’ competency to write clear and effective technical prose for various professions including health, law, criminal justice, education, science, technology, literature and business. Readings and discussions are in Spanish.

Department of Foreign Languages. Box 2147. Sam Houston State University. 1901 University Ave., Huntsville, Texas 77341. AB IV 315. Graduate Advisor Dr. Saumell. email: maspanish@shsu.edu Phone: (936) 294-1449 Fax: (936) 294-4144