M.A. in Spanish
Department of Foreign Languages

Registration opens March 25th

Summer II courses:
July 5th – August 2nd 2013

SPAN 5331.01  The Body, Illness, Injury, Treatment & Death in Hispanic Art & Literature.
Seminar in Comparative Spanish Art and Culture
Dr. Debra Andrist / On-line
SPN 5331 Seminar in Comparative Spanish Art and Culture.
This course provides an in-depth comparison of the arts, visual, aural and/or cultural representations, across the Hispanic world. Topics vary from semester to semester. This course intends to foster student development in Spanish language ability and cultural consciousness.

SPAN 5370.01 History of the Spanish Language
Dr. Enrique Mallén / On-line
SPN 5370 History of the Spanish Language.
This course outlines the history of the Spanish language over the last two millennia, focusing on the formal development of its phonology, morphology, syntax and semantics.

SPAN 5374.01 Studies in Spanish Linguistics: Language and the Law
Dr. Manuel Triano López / On-line
This course focuses on the interface between language and the law. Topics include the forensic analysis of linguistic evidence to solve cases (e.g., to establish the authorship of ransom notes, threat letters, etc.); the language of legal texts (e.g., jury instructions, wills, etc.); and language rights (e.g., the validity of English-Only policies in the workplace, the right to a court interpreter, etc.).