What extenuating circumstances do you identify that have led to your academic difficulties?

What have you done to address the circumstances that caused or significantly contributed to your academic difficulties, or in what ways have the circumstances changed?

Supporting documentation should be provided regarding extenuating circumstances. Examples of this type of documentation are hospital or doctor's bills, divorce decrees, court records, etc.

Are you providing supporting documentation?

Yes      No

The SHSU catalog states that the "period of academic suspension and the subsequent readmission of a student on academic probation are based on the entire Sam Houston State University academic record. Readmission from suspension must be approved by the academic dean of the college in which the student was majoring at the time of his/her suspension."

It is important for petitioning students to know that readmittance is not guaranteed and should not be presumed. An appointment with a dean or associate dean cannot be interpreted to suggest, let alone to guarantee, that the readmission petition will be granted.

I understand that readmittance to SHSU is not guaranteed and cannot be assumed.

Yes, I understand.
