

Purpose and Background

This contest provides an opportunity to earn a scholarship by writing a personal narrative recalling a time you experienced or witnessed a Bearkat embodying our university motto, "The measure of a Life is its Service."

Sam Houston State University adopted the official motto, "The measure of a Life is its Service," to pay tribute to Henry Carr Pritchett, who served as the fourth president of SHSU when it was Sam Houston Normal Institute. Excerpted from Mary Raymond Shipman's short story, The Militants, the motto was inscribed on a memorial window honoring those who served in the Texas Revolution, where it became the official university motto. The quote is prominently displayed in the SHSU Yard as a reminder that service to others is a tenet of our university.
