Does the Library own the Journal in Print?

Click on Research

The screenshot shows the Newton Gresham Library homepage. At the top, there is an orange header with the library name. Below it, a navigation bar contains links for Engine Orange, Books & Ebooks, Articles & More, Online Video, Research Guides, and Digital Collections. A red warning message is displayed: "If you experience problems with your internet browser 'crashing' during an article search, please try an alternate browser (Mozilla Firefox, Google Chrome, or similar)." The main content area features the "Engine Orange" logo and a search interface with a text input field, a "Search" button, and radio button options for "Keyword", "Title", "Author", and "Journal / Publication Name". On the right side, a vertical navigation menu titled "Library" lists various services, with "Research" highlighted in blue. A vertical orange button labeled "Librarian" is positioned to the right of the menu.

Click on Books & Ebooks (Catalog)

This screenshot is similar to the previous one, but the "Books & Ebooks (Catalog)" option in the right-hand navigation menu is circled in blue. Additionally, a vertical orange button labeled "Ask a Librarian" is visible to the right of the menu.

Click on Exact Search

The screenshot displays the SamCat search interface. The top banner includes the Newton Gresham Library logo and the text "SamCat Your Electronic Library on the Web". A navigation bar below the banner contains links for "Renew books", "Search/Home", "Other Catalogs", "Reserve Desk", "New Books", "Digital Collections", "Exact Search", and "ASK A LIBRARIAN". Below the navigation bar, there is a search form with five rows, each containing a dropdown menu for search criteria (words or phrase, author, title, subject, series) and an "And" dropdown. On the right side, a vertical menu titled "Catalog Searches" lists "Exact Search", "Call Number Search", "ISBN Search", and "ISSN Search", with "Exact Search" circled in blue.
