Revised August, 2019
Dear Doctoral Students:

Welcome to the CACREP accredited Doctor of Philosophy program in Counselor Education at Sam Houston State University. Our doctoral program is designed to prepare professionals for a range of work settings including college and university faculty positions, community mental health, private practice, and leadership in school counseling programs. I believe you will find our program both personally and professionally rewarding.

The Department faculty hopes that this handbook, designed both as a program introduction and a guide to help you progress through the program, will be of assistance in the completion of your doctorate. As you will be conducting your practicum in department clinics, also please read the Department of Counselor Education Clinics Handbook found at: https://www.shsu.edu/academics/counselor-education/resources-for-current-students.html.

Handbooks are updated at the beginning of the fall semester. So, it is important that you revisit the handbook each fall. At times, policies are changed at a university or college level that are to be implemented immediately, if the change impacts the content of this handbook they you will be informed via the Department of Counselor Education listserv. Please be advised that everyone (i.e., students, staff, faculty, and administration) is accountable for implementing the change as soon as the change has been announced.

Please become very familiar with those details in all Handbooks, which will affect you and your academic career. Also, refer to Counselor Education Important Dates Deadlines for additional information. Feel free to ask your advisor about anything you do not understand. If at any time you need additional assistance after speaking with your advisor, please contact me. I am here to support and assist you.

Best wishes for your continued success.

Background of Sam Houston State University

Sam Houston State University, located in Huntsville, Texas, is committed to the development of its creative resources so that it can adapt to the changing educational needs of a diverse constituency while maintaining the highest quality in the traditional curricula. The institution was created by the Texas legislature in 1879 as Sam Houston Normal Institute to train teachers for the public schools of Texas. During the following four decades, instruction was offered in the natural sciences, agriculture, home economics, manual training, geography, sociology, and foreign languages. The baccalaureate degree was first awarded in 1919.

The next twenty years witnessed rapid and dramatic changes, including a name change to Sam Houston State Teachers College in 1923. Two years later, the college was admitted to membership in the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS) as an accredited institution of higher learning. The institution began to expand its programs, and a graduate degree was authorized in 1936, a development which expanded the curriculum from its sole emphasis on teacher training to emphases on preparation in a variety of fields.

Following World War II, an increase in students and faculty, as well as a wide range of faculty-research activities, provided impetus for the emergence of a multipurpose institution. By 1960, about 25% of the graduating seniors were receiving degrees in fields other than teaching. Degrees were offered in the social and communication sciences, the biological, physical, and soil sciences; business administration; the fine arts; the humanities; and education. A growing emphasis on research allowed faculty to make significant contributions in their fields beyond the classroom and these activities were accompanied by an increasing diversity in the student body, as more out-of-state and foreign students began seeking degrees at Sam Houston. In recognition of these developments, the institution’s name was changed by the Texas legislature to Sam Houston State College in 1965, and in that year the Texas legislature established as an integral part of the institution The Institute of Contemporary Corrections and the Behavioral Sciences.

During the following years, there was a rapid increase in the enrollment of students with diversified backgrounds, interests, and aspirations, which necessitated continuous examination of programs, faculty, and facilities. The number of graduate degrees conferred increased significantly in the late 1960’s. The Texas legislature, recognizing the changes that had taken place during the course of the institution’s history, changed the name of the institution to Sam Houston State University in 1969.

In the decade of the 1970’s, the university continued to expand its offerings to keep pace with its dynamic environment by adding degree programs in such fields as computer science and environmental science. New graduate degrees, such as the Master of Library Science, the Master of Fine Arts, and the Doctor of Philosophy in Criminal Justice were added. These additions were accompanied by significant improvement in faculty credentials and growth in faculty research activities. In 2002, a new page was added to Sam Houston State University’s history with the addition of the Doctor of Philosophy in Counselor Education.

Currently Sam Houston State University, a member institution of the Texas State University System, is organized academically into six colleges: Business Administration, Criminal Justice, Education, Arts and Media, Health Sciences, Humanities and Social Sciences, and Science and Engineering Technology. Students are offered an extensive range of bachelor’s, master’s, and doctoral degrees. The university is recognized regionally, nationally, and internationally for the quality of its faculty and programs.
Mission Statement for the Ph.D. in Counselor Education at SHSU

The mission of the SHSU Doctor of Philosophy in Counselor Education Program is to enable students to become effective counselor educators, researchers, counseling practitioners at advanced skill levels, and leaders in counseling related educational, agency, or business settings through the development of specific knowledge and experience bases. The mission of the Counseling Master’s Degree Programs is to facilitate the development of professional counseling generalists who play an active role in enhancing individual, family, and community wellness in a diverse and changing world.

Within the context of these missions, the goals of the Program are to:

1. Provide assistance to qualified students in learning the skills necessary to perform as competent and knowledgeable professionals in the counseling field. This includes encouraging students to develop themselves as well-rounded individuals combining their academic experience, personal values, interests, and individual personalities.
2. Provide academic coursework and clinical experience that support and enhance the professional development of the student.
3. Facilitate the Counseling Practicum primarily for clinical training where advanced graduate students have opportunities for direct client contact and individual and group supervision from counseling faculty. Because of the availability of Counseling Practicum interns, the Counseling Practicum also provides counseling and testing for the general public in Huntsville and surrounding areas.
4. Promote an understanding and acceptance of the cultural diversity of our society.
5. Model the standards of integrity, performance, and concern for clients' welfare.

Description of the Doctor of Philosophy in Counselor Education Degree

The Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP) accredited Doctor of Philosophy in Counselor Education provides the highest professional degree available in the field to students who aspire to counseling related education or leadership positions at either colleges/universities or public schools. Graduates of this program have also sought careers in community mental health or in providing counseling services in private practices. Although the degree requirements include a prescribed curriculum of required and elective courses, the doctoral degree is not awarded only on the basis of course work completion and the passing of comprehensive examinations. In addition, each doctoral student is expected to conduct a major research project resulting in the presentation and defense of a dissertation.

Starting in 2003, the Ph.D. curriculum was built upon the foundation of a 48 semester-hour (minimum) master’s degree in counseling or the equivalent, with coursework essentially similar to that of the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP) Community Counseling or School Counseling specialization coursework requirements, or the academic requirements for the LPC Intern license in Texas (pre-8/1/2017). Now, while students may still enter with a 48 semester-hour master’s degree in counseling or the equivalent, each student is expected to meet the CACREP core area standards and specialty standards related to the master’s degree focus, i.e., clinical mental health counseling (2009 standards), school counseling (2009 standards), or marriage, couple, and family counseling (2016 standards).

The Ph.D. Program builds upon the master’s level foundation. The CACREP master’s level core standards include coursework in:
• Professional Identity
• Social and Cultural Diversity
• Human Growth and Development
• Career Development
• Helping Relationships
• Group Work
• Assessment
• Research and Program Evaluation
• A specialization in Clinical Mental Health Counseling; Marriage, Couple and Family Counseling; or School Counseling
• Supervised Practicum Experiences with 100 hours of total time including 40 hours of direct client contact
• Internship Experience with 600 hours of total time including 240 hours of direct client contact

The CACREP standards in 2009 and 2016 now require 60 semester hours for master’s degree graduates in CACREP programs accredited for Clinical Mental Health Counseling; Marriage, Couple, and Family Counseling; and other specialty areas. The requirement for CACREP programs accredited for School Counseling moved to 48 semester hours in 2009.

For Cohort 17, starting in Fall 2019, the Ph.D. program design will require a concentration in Counselor Education, with 30 hours in the Counseling Core/Practicum/Internship, 15 hours in the Research Component, six hours of dissertation, and up to 21 hours in Counseling or related to counseling, depending on courses that apply from the master’s program. A minimum of 120 semester hours of graduate study beyond the baccalaureate degree are required for the doctoral degree.

For Cohort 18, starting in Fall 2020, the program design will require a concentration in Counselor Education, with 30 hours in the Counseling Core/Practicum/Internship, 15 hours in the Research Component, nine hours of dissertation, and 18 hours in the Specialization Area. A minimum of 120 semester hours of graduate study beyond the baccalaureate degree are required for the doctoral degree.

Applicants with extensive master’s degree coursework (beyond 48 semester hours) may not be required to take all 72 semester hours of the curriculum. For example, Cohort 17 students graduating from a 60 semester hour CACREP accredited master’s degree program may only be required to complete a minimum of 60 semester hours (60 + 60=120). Students may take more than 120 hours beyond the baccalaureate based if approved by the Program Director. See the Curriculum Outline on pages 15 and 16 for a listing of the required doctoral courses.

The Ph.D. program is a cohort program. This means that individuals admitted to a specific cohort group are required to take the Counseling Core, Practicum, Internship, and Research Component courses at the same time. Individuals accepted into the program will be expected to follow the schedule of the cohort group to which they are assigned. In the event of emergencies which require an individual to drop out of the normal schedule, she or he may be required to join another cohort group with a different schedule. Admission to the program requires a commitment to devoting a significant amount of time for the period of the individual’s program. Any student unable to devote the required time will be advised to drop out of the program.

Objectives of the Doctoral of Philosophy in Counselor Education

The overall program objectives are to develop professional counseling expertise; develop collaborative relationships with program faculty in teaching, supervision, research, professional writing, and service to the profession and the public; foster participation in professional counseling organizations, including the Association for Counselor Education and Supervision (ACES) and the American Counseling Association (ACA); meet criteria for appropriate credentials; promote scholarly counseling research; and enhance technical competence.

Students who complete the doctoral degree in Counselor Education will be able to:

Checklist and Recommended Time Frame

The following checklist is to help doctoral students schedule important events and serve as a guide to help students follow the required steps in the program. It is the student's responsibility to know and follow university policy regarding the completion of these steps leading to satisfactorily completion of doctoral studies. Additional information concerning doctoral studies and requirements are presented in the SHSU Graduate Catalog. The Graduate Catalog can be accessed at http://www.shsu.edu/home/catalog.html.

Check When Completed:

- Meet Doctoral Program Director to Create Temporary Study Plan (as soon as possible after start of the first semester). In the first semester of the Ph.D. program, meet with the Doctoral Program Director to develop the Temporary Study Plan. There will be a general Cohort meeting to discuss the Temporary Study Plan and students should follow-up individually to complete the initial plan. Students applying for financial aid at SHSU must have all courses to be taken for the degree listed on the Temporary Study Plan by the end of the first semester of the program. This includes courses to be transferred from the master’s degree to count for electives, as well as a list of specialty and general electives to be taken in the doctoral program. No courses from the master’s older than 5 years will be accepted as electives.

  Elective courses listed on the plan can be replaced with a new choice at a later date. See Appendix A for a copy of the Temporary Study Plan for your specific Cohort.

- Complete CACREP Master's Degree Equivalence (during first year of classes). Entering students must have coursework that addresses CACREP master’s level core curricular standards, professional practice standards, and standards for a specialty in either CMHC, MCFC, or School Counseling. Students lacking equivalence in one or more of the standards must take coursework to show competence in those standards in the first year of the program. Courses can be taken along with the prescribed curriculum for the Cohort.

- Start Process of Selecting Dissertation Committee (after one year in the program). Meet or consult with the Doctoral Program Director to discuss research interests and possible dissertation directors. Meet with faculty to select your dissertation director (chair). In some cases, you may have co-chairs. Discuss with your director/chair additional faculty to add to your dissertation committee. This may include a methodologist and/or member(s) with expertise in your research area. Once you have selected your dissertation director and dissertation committee, inform the Doctoral Program Director of your selections.
Successful Completion of Required Course Work and Declare Intention to Take the Comprehensive Examination (Comps)

Comps are taken in the fall semester of the third year of the program after the completion of at least 39 hours of required and elective doctoral courses. Register your intention to take Comps with the Doctoral Program Director.

Take Comprehensive Examinations The Testing and Accreditation Coordinator schedules the Written Comprehensive Examination in the third fall semester. The written comprehensive examination includes a take home component over several content areas, and two days of examination at the main campus, usually the 3rd or 4th week in the semester. Content areas currently include Qualitative Methodology, General Research Methods, Statistics, College Teaching, Supervision of Counseling, and Advanced Theories of Counseling. Oral examinations are scheduled about four weeks after the written examination. Oral examinations are conducted for students with one or more content areas receiving a low pass or one failure. Students failing two or more content areas must retake the written examination in the next full semester. The oral examination panel will have at least three faculty including those representing content areas of concern and the student’s dissertation director, although all doctoral faculty in the department are invited to attend.

Admission to the Candidacy Students are admitted as candidates for the doctoral degree after passing both the written and, if required, oral examinations. A letter stating the student is a candidate for the Ph.D. is filed with the Registrar’s Office after passing the examination(s). Students are required to maintain continuous enrollment in COUN 8033 Dissertation beginning the semester after Admission as a Candidate for the Ph.D. degree and must continue enrolling in COUN 8033 until the dissertation is completed and approved by the dissertation committee.

Dissertation Chair Becomes the Academic Advisor Once a student becomes a candidate for the Ph.D., the Dissertation Chair replaces the Doctoral Director as the candidate’s academic advisor.

Develop Dissertation Proposal (while students will be encouraged to identify a research topic early in the program, all students must select a topic after passing the Comprehensive Examination). Select a research topic and develop the dissertation proposal in collaboration with the dissertation committee. This may be a research topic developed in COUN 7363 Application of Counseling Research, or earlier.

Schedule Proposal Defense with Dissertation Director (Chair)
Schedule the dissertation proposal defense with the Dissertation Director and committee members.

Distribute Final Version of Dissertatoin Proposal (Upon approval of the Dissertation Chair and at least three weeks prior to the date of proposal defense not including holidays and semester breaks). Distribute dissertation proposal (Chapters 1-3) electronically and as a hard copy to dissertation director and committee members. Students are responsible for delivering hard copies to committee members.

Defend Proposal Present and defend the proposal during the scheduled proposal defense meeting. Dissertation director insures that Candidate meets 85% of the criterion items for Chapters 1-3 in the “Checklist for Dissertation Quality” from Writing a successful thesis or dissertation (Lunenburg & Irby, 2008, pp. 299-304).
Submit Proposed Study to the Sam Houston State University Human Subjects Protection Committee and IRB. Prior to conducting the proposed study, candidates must receive approval from the Institutional Review Board (IRB). Documentation of approval must be included as an addendum with the final draft of the dissertation.

Report Outcome of Proposal Defense (immediately after proposal defense). Dissertation director will present the outcome of the proposal defense on Sam Houston State University’s Dissertation Proposal/Defense Form to the Administrative Assistant for the doctoral program.

Complete the Dissertation (usually takes 1-3 years) Doctoral students are expected to graduate within six years of entering doctoral studies, although extensions may be granted up to eight years. Students with permission may continue beyond eight years but will have to repeat courses that are over eight years old.

Schedule Dissertation Defense and Distribute Copy of Final Dissertation to Committee (Obtain approval from the Dissertation Chair and Methodologist at least three weeks prior to defense). Present a final copy of your dissertation to all members of your dissertation committee at least three weeks prior to your dissertation defense date. Submit the dissertation electronically as well as in hard copy form to all dissertation committee members.

Defend the Dissertation Defend the dissertation at the scheduled defense session. At the end of the defense, obtain signatures of the dissertation committee members. Director insures that Candidate meets 100% of the criterion items for Chapters 1-5 in the “Checklist for Dissertation Quality” from Writing a successful thesis or dissertation (Lunenburg & Irby, 2008, pp. 299-304).

Follow the Dissertation Guide to Completion The university guidelines for templates, review, and final approval are found at https://shsulibraryguides.org/thesisguide.

Submit Final Copy of Dissertation Electronic and Route Sheet for Final Approval (after completing final dissertation corrections) Subsequent to completion of final copy of dissertation, secure signatures from the Dissertation Chair, from the Department of Counselor Education Chair, from the Dean of the College of Education, from the Director of the Newton Gresham Library. Once these signatures are obtained, submit final copy of dissertation to the Office of the Dean of Graduate Studies.

Attend Commencement Exercises (date in academic calendar). Please keep us informed of your professional activities, career accomplishments, and work location. One way to do this is to respond to our requests for information. Another is to maintain an active role in our professional associations. Also, please respond to our requests for program evaluations after you graduate. Your anonymous responses are used to help us plan a better program. Since the doctoral program curriculum for Cohort 17 is 120 semester hours beyond the baccalaureate degree with 69 semester hours in the prescribed doctoral curriculum, the master’s degree credits may be applied to meet specialization elective or general elective requirements. Transfer credit will in all cases be individually evaluated by the Director of the Doctoral Program and approved by the Department Chair, Dean of the College of Education, and the Dean of the Graduate School. No transfer credits will be allowed for graduate courses with a grade less than a “B”, and the applicant must have a “B” average (3.0) at the transfer institution. A maximum of twelve semester credits of equivalent coursework will be considered for transfer. No coursework older than 5 years will be considered for transfer unless part of the qualifying master’s degree.

Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

All students with a disability requiring accommodations must contact the Director of the SHSU Office of Services for Students with Disabilities (SSD), as the SHSU Section 504/ADA Coordinator for Student Academic-Related Matters, by telephone at (936) 294-3512. The website link is https://www.shsu.edu/dept/disability/ . An approved accommodation plan should be presented to the instructor. The instructor is obligated to honor approved accommodation plans.

Admission of International Students

A student from another country who seeks admission to Graduate Studies must meet the same requirements for admission and candidacy as students from the United States, including the submission of scores on the Graduate Record Examination (GRE).

In addition, prospective students from other countries must demonstrate the ability to speak, write, and understand the English language. Information is found at https://www.shsu.edu/admissions/international/ . Prospective students whose native language is not English must take the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), which is administered more than 50 times each year by the Educational Testing Service in centers around the world. A registration form and information for candidates may be obtained at the ETS TOEFL website: https://www.ets.org/toefl/ .

All applicants for admission from non-English-speaking countries must present a score of at least 79 on the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL). Sam Houston State University has an English Learning Institute for English-as-a-second language international students. Information about this program may be obtained by contacting the Office of International Programs at Sam Houston State University, https://www.shsu.edu/dept/international-programs/english-language-institute/program-information.html .

Financial Aid

Graduate Research Assistantships and Teaching Assistantships

The department has several half-time graduate research assistantships available (20 hours per week). Doctoral students may also be hired as Teaching Assistants. Contact the Doctoral Program Director to express interest in a research or teaching assistantship. The Department Chair and Doctoral Director select the graduate research and teaching assistants with the consultation of the Counselor Education faculty. The graduate research and teaching assistants are approved and hired by the Department Chair.

The position may be held for one academic year including the summer semester, and may be renewed for a second year. Graduate research assistants support faculty research projects, assist with program support tasks, or are assigned other responsibilities such as assisting with the counseling clinics, or assisting with master's-level practica and internships. Contact the Department Chair for current salary figures. A half-time graduate research or teaching assistant also has out-of-state tuition waived, if applicable. Graduate assistantships may also be available in other SHSU departments, Student Services, or other units of the university.

Other Financial Aid

Graduate students may be eligible for several other forms of financial aid including the Texas Public Education Grant, College Work-Study, on-campus employment, on-campus housing scholarships, and several loan programs. For information and application forms, contact Sam Houston State University Financial Aid office https://www.shsu.edu/dept/financial-aid/ . Doctoral students may apply for scholarships following admission thru Scholarships4Kats. Information is available at this link: https://www.shsu.edu/dept/financial-aid/scholarships/ . The Graduate College accepts applications for scholarships each semester, and accepts applications for support for travel to professional conferences in counseling when the student is presenting or working at the conference. The Department of Counselor Education has a limited amount of scholarship money that can be divided each year between first year doctoral students and advanced doctoral students.

Advisor – The Director of the Doctoral Program

Upon admission to the doctoral program, the student will meet with the Director of the Doctoral Program in Counselor Education. The Director will discuss courses to be taken, options for specialization electives, the completion of CACREP master’s equivalence requirements, and will provide general information regarding the department and the doctoral program.

The doctoral student, under the guidance of the Director of the Doctoral Program, will develop the Temporary Study Plan. The Director will discuss the student's career goals for the purpose of suggesting courses. The Director will also carefully review all graduate courses on the student's transcript and record those applicable as specialization or general electives. After the Temporary Study Plan has been approved it will be loaded into a program called DegreeWorks, where students can monitor their progress through required and elective coursework. After a student successfully passes comprehensive exams and become a doctoral candidate, their advisor becomes their dissertation chair.

Time Limitation for Completion of the Ph.D. Program

The Graduate Catalog states that all degree requirements for the Ph.D. must be completed within six calendar years from the date of admission to the doctoral program. Additional hours beyond six years may be requested; however, the Graduate School supports a limit of eight years, maximum. Under special circumstances students may apply for an additional extension, however courses older than eight years must be retaken.

Ph.D. Minimum Competencies

The Counselor Education program requires students to meet the criteria for the following three areas during residency: a) Research and scholarly activities; b) Departmental service activities; c) Attending one dissertation proposal and one dissertation defense; and, d) Professional service. To fulfill these minimum competencies, you must complete the following activities prior to the defense of your dissertation proposal:

a). Engage in at least two scholarly or research activities with a faculty member outside of coursework or assistantship requirements. The intent of these activities is to lead to either a manuscript submitted for publication in a peer-reviewed journal or presentation proposal at a state, regional, or national conference.

b). Engage in at least two departmental service activities for at least 15 hours, each. Approval needed by Doctoral Program Director (or Dissertation Director after admitted to candidacy). Must select from the following department activities: A) Assisting with a department advocacy project for a semester, B) Assisting with two supervision workshops for site supervisors, C) Assisting with the master programs applicant interviews for a semester (minimum 15 hours), or D) For licensed doctoral students, assisting with supervision of the clinic for a semester (minimum 15 hours).

c). Attend one dissertation proposal defense and one dissertation final defense of other doctoral students.

d). Engage in at least one professional service activity. Examples include:
   A) Being a peer reviewer for proposals for a conference (i.e., local, state, regional, or national);
   B) Being elected or appointed to a position in a: 1) local organization (e.g., Chi Sigma Iota, branch of the Texas Counseling Association); 2) state organization (e.g., Texas Counseling Association or its divisions); 3) regional organization (e.g., Southern Region of the American Counseling association or its divisions); or, 4) national organization (e.g., American Counseling association or its divisions).
   C) Serve as a volunteer at two (2) conferences: ACA, TCA, TACES, TAPT, SC conference, etc.

COMPREHENSIVE EXAMINATION

Written and Oral Comprehensive Examination

The doctoral student must have completed a minimum of 39 semester hours in the Counseling Core/Practicum/Internship, Research Component, and Specialization/Elective areas in order to qualify for the Comprehensive Examination. Students must have completed the following courses within the 39 semester hours prior to taking the Comprehensive Examination: COUN 7331, COUN 7334, COUN 7335, COUN 7362, COUN 7372, COUN 7373, COUN 7374, COUN 7336, and COUN 7337. Students making satisfactory progress in the cohort process will take the written and oral comprehensive examinations during the fall semester in the third year (seventh semester in the program). The examination must be taken and passed a minimum of eight months before the degree is conferred.

General Format and Scheduling

1. The examination consists of written and oral portions from the Counselor Education program.
2. Classes taken in the first six semesters of the program will be addressed during the written and oral comprehensive examinations. The written examination consists of a take-home component for two content areas and the remaining content areas completed in two 4-hour periods per day for two days at the main campus. Content areas such as counseling theories, college teaching, research methods, statistics, qualitative methods, and theories and practice of supervision may be addressed during the examinations, depending on specific courses taken by each student. The written portion is entirely essay.
3. The oral examination will address the same courses included in the written examination. Students are required to take oral examinations when one or more content areas receive a low pass or one failure. The student will be notified of the date and time for the oral examination during the semester when the written portion was complete. Students failing two or more content areas must retake the written examination in the next full semester. The oral examination panel will have at least three faculty including those representing content areas of concern and the student’s dissertation director, although all doctoral faculty in the department are invited to attend. The student should defend or expand that which s/he has written and is expected to provide appropriate bibliographical information. However, questions are not limited to what the student has written. At the end of the oral examination, the faculty involved in the examination deliberate the outcome of the examination. If the outcome is unfavorable, the Counselor Education doctoral faculty will formulate a remediation plan and decide the manner in which the student will be reassessed.

3. Ethics and multicultural issues will be infused in all questions.
4. The student is expected to cite references in each answer. Current APA Publication Style is expected, where reasonable.

Admission to Candidacy for the Doctoral Degree
The Testing and Accreditation Coordinator will notify the Department Chair that all portions of the qualifying examinations have been successfully completed. The official notification of admission to candidacy will be made by the Dean of the College of Education.

Dissertation Enrollment Requirement
After doctoral candidates are admitted to candidacy, they are required to enroll in COUN 8033 Dissertation (3 cr.) for two (Cohort 17) or three semesters (Cohort 18 and subsequent cohorts). Once a student enrolls in a thesis or dissertation course, the student must continuously enroll in such a course every fall, spring, and summer semester until the Dissertation Committee approves the completed research and the signed thesis/dissertation route sheet is received by the Dean of the Graduate School. Students must be enrolled in at least one course in the semester of graduation. Students who fail to enroll for dissertation during any semester after admission to candidacy will be withdrawn from the program. If the student wishes to request re-admittance then they would need to submit a letter to the Department Chair with the rationale as to why they should be readmitted. The Counselor Education faculty will then make a recommendation to the College of Education Dean. Please note that re-admittance to the program is at the sole discretion of the College of Education Dean. The degree can be conferred no sooner than eight months after admission to candidacy.

PREPARATION AND PRESENTATION OF DISSERTATION PROPOSAL

Dissertation Proposal
The proposal is a detailed plan for conducting the investigation and should communicate to the dissertation committee precisely what the student plans to do, as well as why, how, when and where the student plans to do it. The proposal is significant in that it becomes a contract between the student and the committee. Any significant changes or deviation in the proposal will require committee approval. The more accurate, complete, and detailed the proposal, the easier it will be to complete the dissertation. In this stage of the student's program it is important that the chair of the dissertation committee is appropriately matched to the student's research area. The committee monitors the student's progress in writing the dissertation, advises accordingly, and conducts the oral defense of the dissertation.

Preparation of the Proposal
Students are encouraged to utilize the assignments in COUN 7363 Application of Counseling
Research to develop an initial proposal. It benefits the student if this initial effort is closely related to the proposal which will later be presented to the student's dissertation committee. Work closely with the dissertation director (chair) and other committee members in selection of an adequate topic or area for research which is closely related to the counseling field.

Before the Proposal Meeting

At least three weeks prior to the dissertation proposal meeting date, copies of the proposal must be distributed to the dissertation chair and other committee members. Feedback from committee members will be relayed to the dissertation chair at least one week prior to the scheduled proposal meeting.

Each proposal should reflect and be based upon an extensive review of the literature. Although the design of the study normally determines the items included in a proposal, most proposals include, but are not necessarily limited to the following information:

- Statement of the Problem
- Purpose of the Study---states the goals of the research
- Research Questions or Hypotheses
- Significance---indicates why this problem and this study are important; conceptual framework, relevant literature
- Method (or Procedures)---describes instrumentation, how the study will be conducted, how the data will be collected
- Limitations---conditions beyond the control of the researcher that may restrict the study's conclusions
- Delimitations---restrictions placed on the study by the researcher that may restrict the study's conclusions
- Assumptions---the researcher's beliefs about design aspects of the study which may or may not have been validated
- Treatment of the Data – analyses to be conducted, including, as appropriate, the specific statistical procedures, and alternatives to be used if they are necessary

The decision to include each or any of the above proposal parts (or others) should depend upon the section's appropriateness to the specific study. Further, the proposal must show clear evidence that an appropriate methodology in which the candidate is proficient has been chosen prior to submission.

How is the presentation conducted?

The proposal defense should be open to all interested graduate faculty and students. The proposal presentation usually lasts approximately 1-1/2 hours. The procedure may vary, but a standard format includes introductions, introductory remarks by the student regarding his/her interest areas, and an explanation of the proposed study by the student. During the session any faculty member present may ask for clarifications and/or offer suggestions regarding the proposed study. Near the end of the proposal meeting, the student and any student observers leave the room and the committee chair allows faculty members a time for additional comments. The student returns to the session, at which time the student is informed of the dissertation committee's recommendation(s) regarding to the proposed study. Voting persons include the Dissertation Director (Chair) or Co-chairs and committee members only.

Outcome of Proposal Meeting

After the proposal presentation, the committee members will discuss, without the student present, their recommendation concerning the student’s proposed study. The outcome may be one of the following: (a) accept the proposal as is; (b) modify and accept the proposal and the proposal modifications will be reviewed by the chair and/or co-chairs only; (c) modify and accept the proposal but the committee will review the proposal after the recommended modifications have been made; (d) modify the proposal and student will present proposal again to the dissertation committee; or, (e) reject the proposal. When the proposed study has been approved, the student will complete the IRB and once IRB approval is received, student will begin the actual research.

Students complete and submit IRB application materials to the SHSU Institutional Review Board. The application is available at the website of the Office of Research and Sponsored Programs at http://www.shsu.edu/dept/office-of-research-and-sponsored-programs/compliance/irb/index.html. Prior to initiating the dissertation research (collection of data), the student must have the approval of the SHSU committee for Research on Human Subjects using the IRB review process.

Doctoral Dissertation Procedures

The Director (chair) or Co-directors are selected from among the doctoral faculty according to faculty expertise and research interest. The student, in consultation with the Dissertation Chair, will recommend committee appointments to the Director of the Doctoral Program.

Dissertation Committee Membership

The committee consists of three to five members, including the Dissertation Director (Chair) and at least two Counselor Education faculty members. The Graduate Catalog states that the committee must consist of at least a Chair and two other committee members. Department faculty are eligible to serve as chair or co-chair pending approval by the Department Chair. All tenure-track faculty in the Department of Counselor Education are members of the Graduate Faculty and may serve as co-director with the recommendation of the department chair and approval of the Dean. The policy concerning committee membership of individuals not employed by SHSU is found in Academic Policy Statement 950601: https://www.shsu.edu/dept/academic-affairs/documents/aps/curriculum/950601%20Members%20Not%20Employed%20Thesis%20Dissertation_2017doc.pdf.

Dissertation Committee Membership Changes

The committee may be changed upon approval of the Department Chair and written notification by the Chair to the Dean. This documentation should be included within the doctoral student's folder. A student might change a member and/or director when the research area calls for a specialization not represented on the original committee. The student may elect to retain all three of the members from the Department of Counselor Education on the dissertation committee. However, one of these three committee members may be dropped from the committee after the student's proposal for the dissertation has been formally approved and filed as long as there are a total of three committee members. This release from committee assignment is agreed upon by the student and member and should be formally communicated to the Chair of the Department of Counselor Education, with a copy of the request placed on file in student's departmental folder.

Format for the Dissertation

The dissertation typically follows a five-chapter format. The most recent edition of the Sam Houston State University Publication Directions on Form, Preparation and Submission of the Final Copies of Master’s Theses and Doctoral Dissertation, is the official style guide. The guide is available at the following website: https://shsulibraryguides.org/thesisguide. In addition, students will follow the latest edition of the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association when preparing the written dissertation. The committee may approve another style should that format better suit the need of organizing and presenting the research; however, the official SHSU guidelines outlined on the aforementioned website take precedence over those in the style manuals required by departments, and students must use the required dissertation template. In any case, the dissertation is evidence the student is an expert in the chosen topic area. Students are requested to work closely with their Dissertation Director in determining the topic and in formulating the research design. Students are encouraged to work closely with the dissertation committee while writing the dissertation.

DISSERTATION DEFENSE

Submission of Dissertation before the Final Defense
The candidate will complete the agreed upon research and prepare a final manuscript. After receiving approval from the Dissertation Director and Methodologist, the candidate will schedule a defense date coordinating times and dates that are convenient for all committee members. At least three weeks prior to the final dissertation defense date, copies of the completed manuscript should be distributed to the Dissertation Director and other committee members. The defense must be held at least six weeks prior to graduation. The dissertation or thesis defense should be open to all interested graduate faculty and students. Voting persons include the Dissertation Director and committee members only.

After the Defense
The candidate will obtain relevant signatures on the Dissertation Signature Page. Additionally, the candidate and the Dissertation Director will prepare a list of agreed upon changes or modifications to be made to the defended manuscript prior to attaching the document to the Electronic Route Sheet for approvals.

When the Dissertation Director approves the final draft of the dissertation, she/he will submit the Electronic Route Sheet. This form will be automatically routed to the Co-director, and the Dean of the College of Education, the Director of the Newton Gresham Library; and the Dean of Graduate Studies. The completed Route Sheet is then sent to the Office of the Registrar.

The last date for submission can be found in the Academic Calendar. Reproduction of the dissertation and binding costs are the responsibility of the candidate. The original copy will remain in the library collection. Candidates are cautioned to be aware of required deadlines for final admission of all dissertation or thesis manuscripts, necessary forms, copyright agreements, UMI materials, fee payments, applications for graduation, etc.

Special Assistance
Doctoral students may receive assistance from the Writing Center. This center does not proof-read or edit, but tutors and materials are available to assist with writing skills. If the student uses an outside editor in the preparation of the dissertation, the editor should be familiar with dissertation format/style requirements (e.g., APA).

Grade in COUN 8033
A grade of "CR" is recorded each semester until the dissertation is successfully complete, at which time a grade of CR (credit) will be recorded by the Dissertation Director. Students are expected to show progress on the dissertation each semester and may receive a grade of NCR or No Credit if the Dissertation Director determines no progress has been made. Please note that a grade of No Credit is equivalent to a grade of “C” and the student may be required to apply for readmission to the Ph.D. program.
Doctoral Internship Hours

The COUN 7339 Doctoral Internship in Counseling experience must include 600 clock hours (240 of these must be direct). Each semester of COUN 7339 should include approximately 300 clock hours depending on the number of hours completed in the first semester of internship. Students who require an additional semester of internship to satisfy the 600 clock hour requirement must enroll in an additional semester of COUN 7339 unless the student receives a grade of IP or X.

All students must complete at least six semester hours in settings where the student has “supervised experiences in counselor education and supervision (e.g. clinical practice, research, teaching)” (CACREP 2009 Standards). COUN 7339 Internship I (Clinical) will be completed at an off-campus site. The second semester of Internship (Teaching) involves teaching in the master’s degree program and will be completed at the main SHSU Campus or SHSU-The Woodlands Center, or in some campus through an on-line platform. If the doctoral student elects to construct a degree plan for School Counseling Leadership, the second semester of COUN 7339 will be completed at a school district where the doctoral intern shadows a director of counseling and guidance.

Code of Ethics/Confidentiality

The Counseling Program abides by the Code of Professional Ethics of the American Counseling Association. All students in the program are expected to follow the Code of Ethics from the point of entry into the program through graduation. Practicum interns are expected to perform their duties with integrity and professional competence. The following guidelines are offered for the purpose of maintaining these high standards of service.

1. Interns will not misrepresent themselves either by title or professional capabilities.
2. No one shall be denied professional service because of his/her race, religion, gender, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, political affiliation or social or economic status.
3. Informed consent for the specific counseling service(s) and a signed release for audio-and video-recording must be obtained from the client(s) prior to proceeding with counseling sessions. Client(s) must be informed of the presence of supervisors and student observers.
4. An intern will not use the counseling relationship to further personal interests of any kind. Sexual intimacy with clients is unethical and illegal. The acceptance of gifts is unethical. Clients seen in the supervised practicum are not to be seen in private practice by the same counselor.
5. An awareness of unethical conduct on the part of a colleague or another professional should be brought to the attention of a faculty supervisor.
6. Confidentiality is of primary concern in the waiting room, hallways and practicum.
7. All supervisors and interns are obligated to protect a client’s personal data in verbal discussions.

Care and Maintenance of Case Records

1. Strict confidentiality will be observed at all times in record keeping, session recordings, and case presentations. Clinical faculty will maintain and support this confidentiality. The client must provide written permission before any data may be divulged or before the counselor can request information about the client from another professional, except as provided under state law.
2. Confidential information which indicates an immediate physical danger to any individual or to the client him/herself must be communicated to the appropriate or professional supervisor, even without the client’s consent. The supervisor should be notified and apprised of the information. The client must also be informed of this communication.
Release of confidential information is addressed in the Texas Health and Safety Code, Chapter 611, and is also addressed in the American Counseling Association Code of Ethics: B.2.a. Serious and Foreseeable Harm and Legal Requirements The general requirement that counselors keep information confidential does not apply when disclosure is required to protect clients or identified others from serious and foreseeable harm or when legal requirements demand that confidential information must be revealed. Counselors consult with other professionals when in doubt as to the validity of an exception. Consultation should be sought when necessary and referrals to other health professionals will be made when problems are outside the recognized boundaries of the intern’s competence.

3. Written data must be appropriately filed. At no time are clients or non-practicum individuals allowed in the practicum area except as clients in the counseling rooms.

Video recording
Interns are responsible for supplying their own technology for recording their sessions, although the department may have video or audio recorders for loan. Interns will record all of their sessions. All interns must maintain the confidentiality of recordings of counseling sessions.

Student Liability Insurance
During the doctoral practicum and internships, students can be held responsible legally and financially for the results of their professional activities. Each student is required to obtain professional liability insurance which is designed to provide coverage for acts of malpractice, error or omission in the performance of their duties whether they are actual or alleged. (Note: Acts that are held to be negligent are rarely deliberate). Insurance can be purchased through several agencies. Brochures are available in the supervised practicum area. Teachers may find that their supervised practicum activities are covered under their teacher’s liability insurance. Some interns have purchased liability insurance through their homeowner’s insurance policy. A copy of the intern’s liability insurance should be given to the Instructor, prior to enrollment in COUN 7337 or COUN 7339.

GRADUATION

Filing for Graduation
As specified in the Graduate Catalog, the student must file for graduation in the Registrar’s Office by the deadline indicated in the schedule of classes or the Graduate Catalog for that particular semester. For fall and spring graduates, a formal application and payment of the degree/diploma fee must be made in the Registrar’s Office on or before the 12th class day of the semester in which the degree is to be conferred. Summer graduates will be required to file a formal application and pay the degree/diploma fee prior to the semester in which the degree is to be conferred. Specific dates can be found in the Academic Calendar. A student filing a degree application after the published deadline will be assessed a late fee. A student is entitled to graduate under the degree provisions of the catalog in effect at the time of admission into the doctoral program or a subsequent year, provided that in all cases the student fulfills the requirements of a catalog within six-eight years of enrollment in doctoral course work.

Commencement
The degree is conferred at the commencement following the fulfillment of all requirements. The candidate is expected to be present at the ceremony, and permission from the Doctoral Program Director must be obtained if circumstances prevent a candidate from attending commencement.
Equal Opportunity – Affirmative Action
Sam Houston State University policy and practice strongly support the goals of equal opportunity and affirmative action in its educational programs and activities. SHSU does not discriminate on the basis of sex, religion, race, color, national origin, age, disability or other criteria prohibited by law in employment of faculty and staff, or admission and treatment of students, and both in terms of staff and programs we are moving ahead to comply with the goals and objectives of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Educational Amendments Act of 1972 and Executive Order 11246.
No otherwise qualified applicant for student enrollment shall be illegally denied admission to Sam Houston State University on the above-mentioned basis.

Retention/Dismissal Procedure

It is the goal of the Counselor Education Doctoral Program to uphold the current 2014 Code of Ethics and Standards of Practice of the American Counseling Association which states that [counselor education programs]… 1. assist students and supervisees in securing remedial assistance when needed, 2. seek professional consultation and document their decision to dismiss or refer students for assistance, and 3. ensure that students have recourse in a timely manner to address decisions requiring them to seek assistance or to dismiss them and provide students with due process according to institutional policies and procedures. (Section F.9.b.).

It is the professional responsibility of the Counselor Education Program faculty to ensure that students not only exhibit the knowledge and skills required of a professional counselor, but also have the personality and relationship capacities to utilize those skills. Faculty must regularly review and discuss individual student’s progress. Students are expected to model professional behavior throughout the program.

Retention/Dismissal Related to Academic Performance
Academic dismissal will result from failure to maintain the university’s required grade point average. The student should consult the graduate catalog (http://www.shsu.edu/home/catalog.html) regarding academic probation and suspension from degree programs. Any student who wishes to contest a final grade shall follow the provisions outlined in the Sam Houston State University Grievance Policy.

Retention/Dismissal Related to Non-Academic Limitations
A student who fails to demonstrate appropriate communication, interpersonal or professional skills, as identified by a faculty member, may be required by the department to seek remediation including, but not limited to, repeating courses and/or receiving counseling. In accordance with university policy, a student may be suspended or expelled for academic dishonesty, including, but not limited to, cheating, falsifying assignments and plagiarism. (www.shsu.edu/gradcat/degereerequirements.html). In addition, a student who demonstrates personal limitations that impede professional performance, who is harmful to clients, or who violates ethical standards, may be asked to leave the program.

If a faculty member has concerns regarding non-academic limitations of a student:

1. The faculty member will confer with the student regarding the concern, clarifying that the student’s continuation in the program could come under review according to the program’s Retention Procedure. The faculty member will document the meeting in a “memorandum to file,” one copy of which will be given to the student and another placed in the student’s file.
2. If an agreement is not reached with the student, if the student fails to progress satisfactorily after the conference, or if the situation is of a nature that suggests program action might be necessary, the faculty member will bring the matter to the Doctoral Program Director and may consult with the Director regarding options. If resolution is not reached at this point, the Director may refer the matter to the Counselor Education faculty. Recommendations will be made and referred to the Department Chair.

3. The Department Chair will notify the student in writing of the recommendations of the Counselor Education faculty, and notify the Dean of the College of Education. The Dean will review the matter and assure that due process was followed.

Evaluation of Instructors and the Program

In addition to students evaluating the instructor near the end of each course they take, graduates of the program are expected to participate in periodic program evaluations by completing and returning program evaluation forms mailed from the department. These forms will be sent out every three years to recent graduates, along with forms for the graduates to provide to their employer/supervisor who, in turn, complete and return the form to the department. All forms must be returned anonymously. A very high response rate is needed by the department to provide information necessary to make changes to improve the program, and your participation will be greatly appreciated. The results of the surveys of graduates and supervisors/employers will be tabulated and summarized. Results will be distributed to students, the university administration and the agencies with whom we have working relationships.

SHSU Grievance Policy

The following procedures are quoted directly from the “Process for Dealing with Student Grievance Cases”, University policy number APS 900823, revised May 4, 2018:

1. PURPOSE

The purpose of this academic policy statement is to provide for the resolution of student academic grievances in a prompt and equitable manner.

2. GENERAL

2.01 Under the provisions of this policy, academic grievances include disputes over:

   a. Course and/or assignment grades, except cases of academic dishonesty (see Academic Policy Statement 810213 for procedures in cases of academic dishonesty)

   b. Unauthorized class absences or tardiness

   c. An instructor’s alleged unprofessional conduct related to academic matters

   d. Withdrawal or suspension of privileges related to degree-required clinical rotation, internships, or other clinical service delivery in professional degree programs

2.02 Allegations, questions, or appeals involving academic dishonesty, i.e., cheating, plagiarism, collusion, and/or abuse of resource materials, will be processed in accordance with the procedures set forth in Chapter VI of the Rules and Regulations, Board of Regents, The Texas State University System and addressed under Academic Policy Statement 910312 “Academic Probation, Suspension, and Termination”.

2.03 If the dispute is determined to be based upon professional judgment, the aggrieved student is entitled to have, as appropriate and in turn, the department/school chair, College Academic Review Panel, academic dean (or his or her designee), and Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs (or his or her designee) form an opinion about the dispute and so advise the individual(s) involved. After considering the advice provided by any or all of the administrators participating in hearing the grievance, the individual(s) involved in the dispute shall retain the academic freedom to decline to change the original judgment in the matter. The University retains the obligation and right to adjust the record in accordance with the ultimate grievance decision.

2.04 If, in turn, the department/school chair, College Academic Review Panel, academic dean, or Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs finds that a disputed action conflicts with federal or State law, University, college, or departmental policy, or with an instructor’s stated class policy, a decision should be rendered in favor of the aggrieved student.

2.05 Degree programs in fields requiring governmental licensing to practice the profession may propose internal academic grievance procedures for matters including, but not limited to those listed in 2.01.d above. Once approved and signed by the Provost, the program grievance procedures shall govern 2.01.d matters in that department and be the final authority over academic grievances in that program. Professional degree programs include, but are not limited to Clinical Psychology, Music Therapy, and Nursing.

3. COLLEGE ACADEMIC REVIEW PANEL

3.01 There shall be in each college a Standing College Academic Review Panel. The members of the panel shall be chosen by procedures established by the college dean. The panel will consist of three (3) faculty members and two (2) student members. The chair of the panel will be selected from the panel members by the appointees to the panel. A department/school chair or any party to the appeal being heard may not serve on the panel. At least two (2) faculty members and at least one (1) student member must be present for action to be taken.

3.02 The Academic Review Panel will be involved in an alleged grievance only after the procedures outlined in paragraph 4.01 through 4.04 below have been exhausted.

3.03 The Academic Review Panel will hear only appeals involving disputes over those matters set forth in paragraph 2.01.a through 2.01.d of this policy. Appeals regarding University/college degree requirements or student misconduct will not be addressed by the panel.

4. PROCEDURES

The steps below are to be followed in pursuing an academic grievance (Sec 2.01, a-d):

4.01 The student must first appeal to his/her instructor for a resolution of the matter and must do so in writing within ten (10) working days following the posting of the grade, the absence or tardiness, or the alleged conduct.

4.02 The instructor must reply in writing to the aggrieved student within ten (10) working days following receipt of the appeal.
4.03 If an academic grievance is not satisfactorily resolved with the instructor, or the student does not receive a response from the instructor within ten (10) working days, the student may appeal to the chair of the academic department/school in which the complaint or dispute is centered. The student appealing must provide to the chair a written summary of the pertinent issues of the grievance within ten (10) working days of the date of the response of the instructor or when the response from the instructor was due. In addition, a student may include other faculty or staff members or any other informed individual who might act as advocates in support of his/her appeal.

4.04 The chair of the academic department/school in which the complaint or dispute is centered reviews the evidence provided by students and may request/review information provided by the instructor. The chair must respond to the student and the instructor with a written decision within ten (10) working days of receipt of a timely appeal.

4.05 If the student remains aggrieved after an appeal to the chair of the department/school, the student may, within ten (10) working days of receipt of the chair’s decision, forward the written appeal (plus any other additional material) to the college dean in whose college the dispute arose with a request to have the case heard by the College Academic Review Panel. Within ten (10) working days of receiving the appeal, the Panel will investigate the alleged grievance and present such findings and recommendations as the Panel finds appropriate as soon as possible to the student and to other relevant parties, including the department/school chair and the faculty member(s) against whom the grievance is directed. During the panel hearing(s), all parties involved in the original grievance will be invited to appear before the Panel. The student may request either oral or written statements from advocates. The inclusion of these statements at the hearing(s) will be at the discretion of the Panel. Under no circumstances will advocates be permitted to directly question or cross-examine any person who is involved in the grievance. Legal counsel, if included by the grievant, may act only in an advisory capacity and may not be a directly active participant in the proceedings.

4.06 If a student wishes to appeal the Academic Review Panel resolution, he or she may, within ten (10) working days, request in writing that the grievance be forwarded to the college dean in whose college the dispute arose for review and adjudication. The Review Panel will forward all documents pertaining to the dispute to the dean, and the dean will inform the student, the instructor, and the administrators participating in the appeals process of the decision and the disposition of the matter within ten (10) working days of receipt of the appeal.

4.07 If a student wishes to appeal the college dean’s decision, he or she may, within ten (10) working days, request in writing that the grievance be forwarded to the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs. The Provost will receive all documents pertaining to the dispute from the Academic Review Panel and the dean for review. The Provost, or his/her designee, will inform the student, the instructor, and/or the committee chair, and the administrators participating in the appeals process of the decision and the disposition of the matter within ten (10) working days of receipt of the appeal. The Provost’s decision is final.
