Extend a hand of friendship...
become a member of the Friends of the Criminal Justice Center

How do Friends help? Your friendly (and tax-deductible) contribution will immensely support the noble mission of SHSU and the Criminal Justice Center in the following manner:

1. Improving the quality of justice through education and research.
2. Fostering close ties among the College of Criminal Justice, its supportive alumni and loyal friends, through College of Criminal Justice Receptions around the state and at Conferences around the Country. In addition to tailgates at all the home football games and Graduation Receptions at all graduations for our graduates.
3. Promoting invaluable internship opportunities for students dedicated to study of criminal justice.
4. Supporting professional networking.
