SPECIALIZED READING IN CRIMINAL JUSTICE CRIJ 6093

Stud	lent's Name:
	LAST	FIRST		MI
Stud	lent #:	Semeste	r/Year:
Prof	essor's Name:
Area of Concentration
Note	e: Doctoral Students are allow Masters Students are allow
	ADEMIC HONESTY: following language on academic h ce:	onesty must be included in	all syllabi of the	College of Criminal
acad	demic Honesty: The Faculty of the emic work with integrity and hone it in the failure of a course and displayed.	sty. Acts of academic dish
unau	demic dishonesty includes, but is nathorized collaboration with anotherials, and misrepresentation of cre	er person in preparing work	offered for cred	it, the abuse of resource
Stud	University's policy on academic h ent Guidelines, distributed by Divient Guidelines)
"Stu a con that may	ABLED STUDENT POLICY: Idents with a disability which af inference with the instructor in of participation and achievement of contact the Director of the Cou istance for Disabled Students by	order that appropriate strated popportunities are not impainseling Center as chair or	tegies can be caired." The phy	onsidered to ensure ysically impaired
1)	Title of Project:
2)	Brief description of project:

Brief description of project:

Director of Division of Professional Justice Studies		Date
Professor's Signature		Date:
Stuc	lent's Signature	Date:
	whether written or oral presentation or both, any w	riuen or oral examinations).
7)	review, scope of analysis, quality of analysis, breadth and depth of citations employed,
6)	Where will results be formally presented (at ACJS	, ASC, etc.)?
5)	What written products will be produced from this p	project?
4)	List several illustrative sources by APA citation for (may be attached).	rmat that will be utilized for this project
3)	Please explain how this course complements and strengthens the regular coursework for your degree?		