A Criminal Justice Ph.D. or M.A. student and a full-time CJ faculty member will collaborate during the summer on this project. Upon completion, a co-authored manuscript will be submitted for peer-review to a scholarly journal by October 1, 2022. Additionally, a letter/email of receipt from the journal documenting the manuscript has been submitted and is under peer-review will be presented to the Director of CJC Graduate Programs. Additional authors may be involved in the project; however, multiple students will not receive funding for the same paper. Students awarded fellowships may not receive funding from other sources. As per University Policy, students may not be paid for more than 20 hours (50%) during the summer months. An award of up to $6,672 is anticipated but is contingent upon funding availability. Preference will be given to 1st and 2nd year doctoral students.

To apply, submit the following:

1) The proposal should include a title page with abstract, brief literature review, complete methods section (including a description of existing data to be analyzed, variable list, and hypotheses) and research design. Include a list of several illustrative sources in APA citation format. The proposal should be double-spaced, Times New Roman, 12-point font with one-inch margins. Research proposals should be no more than 8 pages attached to this form (page limit does not include title page and references).

2) A tentative timeline that outlines when each component of your project will be completed (e.g., literature review, data analysis, results/discussion, submission to journal).

3) An updated curriculum vitae

4) Fellowship applications not following these guidelines will not be considered. Fellowship applications will be reviewed by the Graduate Standards and Admissions Committee and ranked on contribution and merit. Submit applications along with this cover sheet to Ana Dragoo, Room A202, by January 28 2022.
