

SARAH HIRSCH, PHD MBA MSN RN

sarahhirsch@hotmail.com

Tomball, TX 77375

EDUCATION

Ph.D. Capella University Dissertation: “The Effect of Adaptive Quizzing on ADN Students’ Exit HESI Scores”	July 2020
MSN University of Texas, Arlington	May 2013
MBA University of Texas, Tyler Health Care Administration Major	August 2013
BSN Texas Tech University	May 2008
AAS Kingwood College	December 2006
BS Colorado State University Human Development and Family Studies Major	December 1999

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Sam Houston State University, Huntsville/TWC August 2021 to Current Adjunct Faculty, Nursing

- Adjunct faculty for Community, S1 nursing course.
- Adjunct faculty for Older Adult, S2 nursing course.

Lonestar College, Kingwood January 2013 to Current Associate Professor, Nursing

- Faculty team lead for upper and lower levels of ADN program, with 4 full-time faculty, and 4-5 adjuncts per semester.
- Curriculum committee department chair.
- Taught all nursing courses in an integrated nursing degree program; pharmacology, fundamental, medical-surgical, critical care, capstone, skills lab, and clinical
- Contact responsible between the college and each of the multiple clinical sites, responsible for record-keeping and documentation upkeep as required by each of the multiple clinical sites.
- Developed quizzes, exams, and homework with an adaptive quizzing framework.
- Develop test-taking strategies workshop for introductory level nursing students.
- Revised the syllabus to meet accreditation standards.
- Familiar with ACEN Accreditation and co-authored campus self-study.

- Courses taught include:
 - RNSG 1301 – Pharmacology
 - RNSG 1219 – Nursing Skills 1
 - RNSG 1229 – Nursing Skills 2
 - RNSG 1523 – Level 1 Nursing Didactic
 - RNSG 2504 – Level 2 Nursing Didactic
 - RNSG 2514 – Level 3 Nursing Didactic
 - RNSG 2535 – Level 4 Nursing Didactic
 - RNSG 1361 – Level 1 Nursing Clinical
 - RNSG 1362 – Level 2 Nursing Clinical
 - RNSG 2361 – Level 3 Nursing Clinical
 - RNSG 2362 – Level 4 Nursing Clinical

University of Texas, Arlington
Clinical Instructor, Nursing

August 2017 to Current

- Clinical and lab instructor for the Accelerated Online BSN program for the following courses: Foundations, Assessment, Medical-Surgical, Pediatrics, and Critical Care.
- Responsible for instructing skills lab, coordinating clinical site, and supervising students in the clinical setting.
- Clinical liaison between University of clinical sites, responsible for completion of orientation paperwork, ensuring required immunizations, documentation, and student paperwork submitted and maintained as necessitated by clinical sites.
- Courses taught include:
 - Critical Care clinical
 - Fundamentals skills lab and clinical
 - Medical/surgical nursing skills lab and clinical

Lonestar College, Kingwood
Adjunct Clinical Instructor, Nursing

January 2013 to December 2014

- Clinical instructor for the associate degree nursing program for the following courses: all four levels of the program.
- Responsible for instructing and supervising students in the clinical setting.

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

National Student Nurses Association, 2017-Present
 Campus Faculty Advisor

REFERENCES

Provided upon request.