

Christine Cardinal

cardinal@shsu.edu, Office CHSS 432G

5 gg]ghUbhDfcZYggcf`]b`Health Care Administration / `5 Hc`fbYmiUih@k

- Progressive record of strategic grant management & identifying key stakeholders, gaps, and barriers.
- In-depth planning and building comprehensive initiatives in support of organizational and grant goals.
- Employment law & tailoring employment policies to protect businesses from future litigation.
- Quality Improvement with local health organizations and public health services.

Core Competencies

- Pedagogy
- Scientific & Legal Research
- Scientific & Legal Writing
- Public Health Grants
- Employment Law
- Health Care Law
- Budget Management
- Strategic Planning
- Westlaw/Lexis/Stata/SPSS
- Public Health Education
- Quality Improvement
- Legislative Advocacy

Professional Experience

Assistant Professor, Health Care Administration

Sam Houston State University, Department of Population Health
Huntsville, TX, Chair: Dr. Roseanne Keathley, 936-294-1171
August 2016 – Present

Adjunct Professor, Health Law

Tarleton State University
Stephenville, TX, Supervisors: Dr. Sally Hoger & Dr. Sally Lewis, 817-926-1101
August 2015 – December 2015

- Developing and presenting innovative pedagogical methods for engaging a group of undergraduate students to explore health law and its application for clinicians

Adjunct Professor, School of Pharmacy

University of North Texas Health Science Center
Fort Worth, TX, Supervisors: Dr. Annesha White, School of Pharmacy, 817-735-2000
June 2015 – December 2015

- Developing and presenting innovative pedagogical methods for engaging a group of 86 pharmacy doctoral students to explore public health and its application for clinicians

Teaching Fellow, School of Public Health

University of North Texas Health Science Center, 817-735-2000
Fort Worth, TX, Supervisors: Dr. Thaddeus Miller, Health Management and Policy Department Head
December 2014 – May 2015

- Full responsibility for an on campus class of 56 master's degree seeking students teaching Health Management and Policy and preparing them for the certification in public health examination.
- Innovative Pedagogical methods for engaging a group of globally diverse students with diverse Public Health interests.

Research Fellow, Hogg Policy Grant for Mental Health

Texas Osteopathic College of Medicine
Fort Worth, TX, Department of Family Medicine
June 2014 – July 2015

- Writing Public Policy Briefs for the Hogg Foundation for Mental Health Grant for Homeless with Co-Occurring Disorders
- Negotiating Quality Improvement with Public Health Care Organizations
- Lobbying Local & State Government officials about homelessness and gaps in care
- Educating government officials & community members on evidence-based solutions

Research Fellow, Mountain States Genetics Research (MSGRC)

University of North Texas Health Science Center, School of Public Health, 817-735-2000
Fort Worth, TX, Supervisor: Dr. Sharon Homan, Biostatistics Department Head
December 2014 - Present, MSGRC Researcher Public Policy

- Writing Public Policy Briefs for MSGRC regarding Essential Health Benefits for Children with Genetic Disorders
- Identifying Insurance Gaps and Limitations Important to Families with Children with Genetic Disorders
- Educating patients regarding the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act and Essential Health Benefits
- Holding Patient Focus Groups to Identify Key Gaps and Barriers to Sufficient Coverage and the Key Causal Factors for Underinsurance

Attorney

Law Offices of Christian Jenkins P.C., 817-461-4222
Arlington, TX, Supervisors: George Paradise, Christian Jenkins
June 1995 – Current, Employment Law Contract Associate

- Writing & Arguing of Motions and Appeals
- Benefit Review Conference & Contested Case Hearings
- Requests for Production & Interrogatories
- Witness Questioning & Motivational Interviewing
- Mediations
- Depositions
- Client Intake & Retention
- Legal Research

Teaching Assistant

University of North Texas Health Science Center, School of Public Health
Fort Worth, TX, Supervisors: Dr. Thaddeus Miller & Dr. Stephen Jacob, 817-735-2000
August 2013 – December 2014, Teaching Assistant

Policy Intern/Pro Bono Attorney

Cook Children's Health Care System
Fort Worth, TX, Supervisors: Dr. Jose Gonzalez & Dr. Jackie Meeks
Feb. 2013 – July 2013, MPH Student Intern

- Interviewed Personnel on Patient and Family Centered Care & Researched & Wrote New Survey Inquiries
- Wrote the Center for Children's Summer Patient Newsletter
- Negotiated and Wrote MOUs between associate charitable organizations

Education

University of North Texas Health Science Center, Fort Worth, TX
Masters of Public Health, December 2013

Texas A&M School of Law, Fort Worth, TX
Juris Doctor, May 2007, Awarded Health Law Scholarship, Awards in Trial Advocacy and Moot Court

Texas Christian University, Fort Worth, TX
Bachelor of Arts in Religious Studies, May 2003

Certifications & Skills

Member in good standing of the Texas Bar
Nationally certified in Public Health
Microsoft Office Suite, Quicken, Corel Suite, STATA, SPSS, Adobe Suite, LexisNexis & Westlaw

Charitable/Volunteering Interests

Veterans Alliance Network
Mountain States Genetics Regional Collaborative
American Cancer Society
Kids Who Care, Fort Worth, TX