

Cody E. Nager

Academic Building IV, Office 413
1921 Avenue J
Huntsville, TX 77341
cen031@shsu.edu

Employment

Sam Houston State University, Huntsville, TX

- Lecturer in History

Stanford University, Stanford, CA

- Research Fellow, Hoover Institution History Lab
- Instructor, Stanford Civics Initiative

Texas Tech University, Lubbock, TX

- Visiting Assistant Professor of History

Education

- Ph.D. in History, The Graduate Center, City University of New York
- M.A. in History, The College of William and Mary
- B.A. in History, Columbia College, Columbia University

Selected Courses Taught

Sam Houston State University

- Atlantic Crossroads: American Citizenship, Commerce, Politics, and the Law
- US History Since 1877

Stanford University

- Immigration and Citizenship: The American Experience
- Global Futures: History, Statecraft, Systems

Texas Tech University

- US History Since 1877

City University of New York School of Law

- Lawyering Seminars I, II and III

City College of New York, City University of New York

- Development of US Society and its People

Selected Publications

- “Migration Without Movement: The Struggle over Incorporation and Citizenship as Borders Expanded in the Early United States,” The Journal of Early American History 15:1/2 (July 2025): 30-59.
- “How Atlantic Mobility Shaped American Naturalization in the Confederation Period,” The Journal of American Ethnic History 41:2 (Winter 2022): 5-25.
- “The Fading Mirage of Revolution: The French Expeditionary Force’s Disillusionment with America, 1780-1782,” The Historian 81:3 (Fall 2019): 426-47.