

SHSU Faculty Receives Funds for Cancer Research

Dr. Danhong Chen, Assistant professor within the School of Agriculture at Sam Houston State University, recently received a $1,467,728.00 grant from the Cancer Prevention and Research Institute of Texas. The funds are to help establish a Comprehensive Cancer Prevention and Support Program among Asian-American Communities in Texas.

The Cancer Prevention and Research Institute of Texas (CPRIT) states that “Today’s investments demonstrate CPRIT’s continued commitment to cancer research and the unparalleled growth of the cancer-fighting ecosystem across Texas”. All awards go to benefiting research and clinical trials, providing cancer screening for underserved areas, along with treatment of the disease.
