Learning About Yourself

Transition Assessment and High School Students

Extra-Curricular Participation	School Play/Choir/Band Sports Scouting Clubs Church/Community Volunteer Work	Participation in extra-curricular activities develops natural supports for students that generalize to the academic environments. Students learn teamwork, social skills, leadership skills, along with perseverance and goal setting. Students who participate in extra-curricular activities in elementary are more likely to continue in secondary grades. Students who struggle academically often view extra-curricular participation as the balance to their daily struggles.
Independent Living Skills	KU Self-Determination Vineland FACES Student/Parent Survey Personality Inventory Scale of Independent Behaviors	http://www.caseylifefskills.org/pages/assess/assess_aclsai.htm The ACLSA I & II are for students ages 8-12 http://www.cenmi.org/msdb-LIO/ILS.asp Michigan Department of Education checklist and guides.
