Sam Houston State University Academic Policy Statement 861001 Student Absences on Religious Holy Days Page 1 of 2 Reviewed October 26, 2022

1. GENERAL

- 1.01 Section 51.911 (b) of the Texas Education Code requires that an institution of higher education excuse a student from attending classes or other required activities, including examinations, for the observance of a religious holy day, including travel for that purpose. A student whose absence is excused under this subsection may not be penalized for that absence and shall be allowed to take an examination or complete an assignment from which the student is excused within a reasonable time after the absence.
- 1.02 "Religious holy day" means a holy day observed by a religion whose places of worship are exempt from property taxation under Section 11.20, United States Tax Code.

2. PROCEDURES

- 2.01 Each instructor will reference the provisions of this policy in the syllabus.
- 2.02 A student who is excused under this section may not be penalized for the absence, but the instructor may appropriately respond if the student fails to satisfactorily complete the assignment or exam.
- 2.03 A statement regarding University attendance policies and procedures for religious holy days will be published in University undergraduate and graduate catalogs, Student Guidelines published by the Division of Student Affairs, and the Faculty Handbook.
