

Dionicia Rivera

College of Education
Department of Educational Leadership
EdD, Educational Leadership

Online Learning Experiences of Latino Public Middle School Students

In this phenomenological study, research is presented about the unique needs of middle school learners and Latino learners, culminating in the results of interviews with six Latino students who were in middle school during the COVID-19 pandemic. The findings are presented with implications for practitioners studying this population and those who are exploring the strengths and weaknesses of online learning environments.

Event Information

March 30, 2023

11:30 am

Zoom Link

Committee Members

Dr. Ricardo Montelongo

Dr. Peggy Holzweiss

Dr. Susan Borg

Sam Houston State University

PUBLIC DEFENSE ANNOUNCEMENT