Ex Nihilo: A Case Study of Select Higher Education Apex Leaders and the Creation of a New College

This study explored, using a case study qualitative methodology, the perceptions and lived experiences of select apex-level higher education leaders at a selected institution of higher education when they created, developed, and sustained a new college. This study explored whether and how apex leaders behaved entrepreneurially, including managing risks, the implementing new ideas, and setting a foundation for growth.

Event Information
August 25, 2022
1:00 PM
TEC 319L

Committee Members
Dr. Julie Combs
Dr. Matt Fuller
Dr. Forrest Lane