A Journalist's Fight Against Covid-19 Disinfodemic in India

As Covid-19 encompassed India, journalists across the country faced the pressure of disseminating credible information. However, online misinformation and disinformation posed a significant challenge for these professionals, especially when the world was fighting an unknown disease.

This study attempts to uncover such challenges and understand how journalists tackled the rise of fake news and other uncredible information surrounding Covid-19.

Event Information
Date – 28th October
Time – 10 am to 12:30 pm
Location - Zoom

Committee Members
Dr. Ryan Broussard
Dr. Christopher Toula
Dr. Marcus Funk