A Curated Telecommuting Curriculum is Available in Talent Management

Telecommuting, working remotely, virtual teaming? Whatever you call it, we have the curriculum for you!

The curated "A Telecommuting Curriculum" in Talent Management will teach you the basics of telecommuting, how to set up your workspace, and how to be a terrific virtual team member, among other things. Completing these courses also earns you credit toward the staff professional development requirement.

To locate the courses, from the Welcome page in Talent Management go to Learning>Browse for Training. The following six-course curated curriculum will be listed under "Featured" on your course tile listing page.

Please use Microsoft Edge or Safari for Macs when viewing these courses. If Safari has trouble launching a course, you may need to update Flash in your browser first.

For questions, please contact TJ Bittick, Professional Development Coordinator, Human Resources, tjb005@shsu.edu, or 936.294.2328.
