China Study Abroad Beijing, China
China University of Mining and Technology (CUMTB)
(http://eng.cumt.edu.cn/)
May 24 – June 16, 2020

Program organized by Dr. Fidel Gonzalez. Space is limited to 15 students. Applications are taken on a first-come, first-served basis. A waiting list will be created once the 15 spots are filled. Please contact Dr. Gonzalez at fxg001@shsu.edu or office 241A in the Smith-Hutson Business building or Malin Hilmersson in the Study Abroad Office at malin@shsu.edu

Courses Offered - ECON 4360 & ECON 4085
These courses will cover: 1) the evolution and present of the business/economic system in China and 2) China’s cultural and businesses practices. Please see the Department Chair of Economics and International Business for substituting these courses for other economics courses required by your degree plan.

Planned Trips Tiananmen Square, Forbidden City, Hyundai Factory Beijing, Yanjing Brewery, Great Wall of China, Terracotta Army Museum, 3-day trip to the city of Shanghai and another 3-day trip to the city of Xi’an.

Costs
1. Program fee is $1,060 (includes all hotels, visa to China fee, all field trips and guided tours, bullet train transportation within China, subway card in Beijing and Shanghai, some meals, special activities, and guest lectures).
2. Airfare is approx. $1,000 for a Houston/Beijing round-trip flight.
3. Food and any other personal expenses. Recommended for three weeks and a half: $500 (recommended minimum $400)
4. Tuition for 6 hours ~ $2,138

Scholarships - There are two scholarships available:
1. The College of Business Administration (COBA) offers a scholarship of $1,000 for the first ten students admitted to the program. To qualify, you only need to be a business major. Application sheet is available from Dr. Gonzalez.
2. The Office of International Programs (OIP) offers $1,000 scholarships to students with a GPA of at least 3.0. Deadline to apply is February 1st. See: https://www.shsu.edu/dept/international-programs/scholarships/index.html

Accommodation: all accommodations are included in the program fee. The accommodation in Beijing is conveniently located on the CUMTB campus in the middle of the college life of Beijing.

Important Dates and How to Apply
1. To apply contact Dr. Gonzalez, fill out and take your application to the Student Money Management Center. After that turn it in to the International Office. You can access the application in this link: https://bit.ly/2qDqqlP0
2. $300 deposit paid within one week of being accepted into program.
3. February 10th – $300 of program fee due; March 10th – $250 of program fee due.
4. April 10th – the remaining $260 of program fee due.

More information can be found in the following link https://bit.ly/3435IGG and you can also email Dr. Gonzalez at fxg001@shsu.edu or Malin Henderson at malin@shsu.edu