Irish Literature and Culture (in Ireland) English
English Study Abroad Scholarship

The SHSU English Department is proud to announce a program of cost reimbursement support for Study Abroad and Study Away programs sponsored by the College. This program has been made possible by the generous support of the Friends of English. Scholarships will be available to eligible undergraduate students in amounts of up to $500.00.

To be considered for the English Department Study Abroad Scholarship, students must be enrolled at Sam Houston State University, held in “good standing,” have a minimum 2.25 GPA, and be a declared English major or minor (with majors having priority). This program is designed to reimburse for expenses for off campus study programs to those students who might otherwise be unable to afford the study abroad experience.

The following application information is required:

1. Completed application
2. A transcript showing major and current GPA

Please submit the application materials by Monday, February 17, 2020 to:
