SAMPLE OFFICER DUTIES

Every recognized student organization must create and maintain an organization constitution and bylaws, which include outlines for basic officer roles. Organization members shall clarify the responsibilities of each office. This document reviews possible position responsibilities and is intended to be a resource during constitutional development. Descriptions below will help answer the question, "Now that I've been elected, what am I supposed to do?"

Although a student organization's constitution lists some specific positions' responsibilities, each officer should have the freedom to personalize their office. Traditional titles such as president or vice president are not required; be creative – if you have a film club, perhaps you'd like for your leadership titles to reflect your interest (i.e. Director, Producer, Editor). Another example would be a BBQ club (i.e. Grill Master in lieu of President). Individual interest areas and skills often dictate the amount of time an officer spends on a particular responsibility. However, a good officer never forgets what the basic responsibilities are.
