

Heath A. Scott 2014

Heath Scott majored in Political Science at SHSU for his undergraduate work. During that time, he played college basketball and was in Student Government. For his graduate work, he majored in Homeland Security and was in the 2-year ROTC program and Student Government. While he was a student at SHSU he was an SMP Cadet assigned to HHC, 549th Brigade Support Battalion, Huntsville Reserve Center, from 2012-2014. In 2014, Heath was commissioned Military Intelligence.

After commissioning in 2014, he was assigned as AS-2, HHC, 1-149th Attack Reconnaissance Battalion, Ellington Field Joint Reserve Base from 2014-2016. He served as Executive Officer (A CO, 383rd Military Intelligence Battalion, Fort Leavenworth, KS from 2016-2018, and is currently Intelligence Team Leader (A CO, 383rd Military Intelligence Battalion, Fort Leavenworth, KS).

During that time, he has received the Global War on Terrorism Service Medal, Army Achievement Medal (2X), Military Outstanding Volunteer Service Medal, Army Reserve Component Achievement Medal, National Defense Medal, and Army Service Ribbon.

Advice for Cadets:

- Keep good records; the Army is guaranteed to ALWAYS lose something.
- Do as much as you can; the time will fly by.
