

Completing Your Table of Contents Options

After creating your protocol, you will be guided to an Options page.

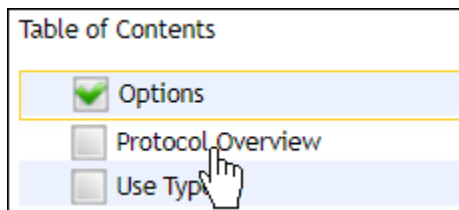

The screenshot shows a web interface titled "Choose Options". It contains a list of 13 questions, each with radio button options for "Yes" and "No". The first three questions have a blue checkmark icon next to the "Yes" option, and the last one has a blue checkmark icon next to the "Yes" option. The other questions have no icons.

This is the first section in your protocol's Table of Contents. Once you click Save, the choices on the Options page regulates which sections are added to your Table of Contents.

Note: You can proceed to any section in the Table of Contents.

The screenshot shows a "Table of Contents" menu with three items: "Options", "Protocol Overview", and "Use Typ". The "Options" item is highlighted with a yellow border and has a green checkmark icon next to it. A mouse cursor is pointing at the "Use Typ" item.

Section	Status
Options	Completed (Green checkmark)
Protocol Overview	Not completed (Grey square)
Use Typ	Not completed (Grey square)

A green checkmark in the box next to a section indicates that all required fields in the section have been completed. All sections must have a checkmark before you can submit your protocol.
